Pastoral Letter

May 2015

Dear Friends,

John 17:21 says 'That all of them should be one'. This text has perplexed the Church for years. What does it mean? Some have seen it as a text that would bring all of the denominations of the Christian Church together. It is therefore seen by some as a call to unity across the Christian Church in the World. This seems a bit far-fetched. Too often unity is seen as uniformity. That would not sit well with our own tradition where the local congregation under the supervision of the Presbytery has the freedom to 'be-Church' in their own Parish. In many ways they are free to respond to the differences that may arise in the Community. Where there is trust and faithfulness God's people are encouraged to meet the needs of their Parish.

The Church of Scotland is not sustainable in the way it once was. We must find ways to share resources and work together with our neighbouring Church of Scotland Charges. To that end we have the opportunity to enter into a 'Parish Grouping'. This group consists of St Mary's, St David's Memorial Park, Hillhead and St Columba's. We are being asked to work with each other and discover things we can do and share together. This should mean we have the opportunity to set up a development group who would bring new and fresh ideas to the group. As a congregation we are asked to vote on this recommendation. I believe it is a good way to work and will strengthen the Christian witness in Kirkintilloch. You will see elsewhere in the Magazine the details of the vote etc. Our Session Clerk will keep us up to date with the process and ultimately the outcome.

'That all of them should be one' – one in working together where we celebrate our difference.

Kindest regards

Grandparents make family life possible

Nearly a quarter of parents in the UK admit that they can only work because their children are looked after by their grandparents.

Nearly 4 in 10 children aged between 6 and 16 say that they now are spending more time with their grandparents than with their mums and dads. One in six grandparents even has grandchildren living with them, on at least a part-time basis.

In a survey by Interflora, it was also found that just over half of all the children had shared a secret with their grandparents that they had not told their parents.

Nearly half of all grandparents said they felt a need to help, because nursery and child-care costs are seen as unaffordable.

The Guarding of the God of Life

The God of life with guarding hold you,
The loving Christ with guarding fold you,
The Holy Spirit, guarding, mould you,
Each night of life to aid, enfold you,
Each day and night of life uphold you.

St Mary's Nursery

St. Mary's Nursery is delighted to announce that we have been successful in achieving our 4th Eco Schools Green Flag! This is great news, as we are one of the leading partnership nurseries in East Dunbartonshire to have achieved this.

I would like to thank the children, parents, grandparents and staff for all their hard work. Additionally, we would like to thank the Nursery Committee and our church Eco Liaison for their support. The following is an extract from the Lead Assessor, Paula Love, from Eco Schools Scotland in response to our application:

"I very much enjoyed reading your application to renew your Green Flag status and was delighted to see that you had maintained wonderful progress since your last Award, as well as having sound ideas for the future. In so doing, you have received welcome, on-going support from families, your community, the local authority, neighbourhood businesses and environmental groups, allowing your children to grow in confidence and expertise. Your links with Sainsbury's and work with Kirkintilloch Horticultural Society and the Mugdock Rangers are great examples of this collaborative approach, as is your sharing of good practice with Lenzie Moss Primary School and other nurseries locally. Furthermore, you have integrated the Eco-Schools' Programme well into the Nursery's curriculum and calendar via Eco-themed topic work and events such as Red Nose Day, Porridge Day and Earth Day. In addition, it was good to hear that you had been developing your grounds, extending the children's learning of out of doors and ensuring that your outside space is a marvellous resource for learning and recreation. In addition, you are to be warmly commended for your community litter picking activities, for your promotion of Fair Trade in St. Mary's, leading the way in this field within East Dunbartonshire and for your generous support of a range of worthwhile charities at home and overseas. It was also great to hear that you had been supporting your local church on its journey to becoming an Eco Congregation and achieving Fair Trade Church status. Your pupils are truly responsible, mini global citizens. Fantastic work everyone and keep up this amazing effort!"

This term, the nursery will also be celebrating a very special birthday. Established in 1965, we have been caring and nurturing the children in Kirkintilloch and beyond for 50 years! We will be having some exciting events over the coming months within the nursery and will also have the opportunity to share this anniversary with a special service of "Celebration and Dedication" on Sunday 31 May 2015.

Quiz Night Results

Thanks to all those who made the quiz such a success on Friday night. The Kelvinvale Killers were the winning team, but the results were all very close. As well as being an enjoyable way to spend an evening the event raised just over £200 for the roof fund.

May 14: Ascension Day – 40 Days with the Risen Christ

40 days after Easter comes Ascension Day. These are the 40 days during which the Risen Christ appeared again and again to his disciples, following his death and resurrection.

The Gospels give us little of Christ's teachings and deeds during those forty days. Jesus was seen by numerous disciples: on the road to Emmaus, by the Sea of Galilee, in houses, etc. He strengthened and encouraged his disciples, and at last opened their eyes to all that the Scriptures had promised about the Messiah. Jesus also told them that as the Father had sent Him, He was now going to send them - to all corners of the earth, as his witnesses.

Editor: If you want to add more detail to Christ's appearances, the stories can be found in Matthew 28; Mark 16; Luke 24; and John 20.

Draft basis of Parish Grouping – Kirkintilloch Churches

Mark has made reference to the proposal to form a Parish Grouping with the four Church of Scotland Congregations in Kirkintilloch. This is an arrangement, in line with the Presbytery Plan for Glasgow, which will be ratified if the congregations of the four Churches involved are all in favour. Accordingly, you will be asked to vote for or against the proposal at the beginning of June.

A copy of a “Draft Basis” of the Parish Grouping is included below. It should be noted that the majority of this document is prescriptive – Paragraph 7 is the one area where the individual Churches determine the appropriate content.

There will be a lot more information available in the coming weeks, including open question and answer forums leading up to the vote in June. In the meantime, please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss the proposal.

Kind regards,

Gordon Morrison, Session Clerk

The Rectory . . .

St James the Least

My dear Nephew Darren

I have to say that the couple who complained that you never noticed they had been missing from church for a month had a point. There is a simple way of noticing when someone is absent: everyone sits in the same pew. Every Sunday. Always.

Little Miss Margison sits in the pew after the third pillar on the right here at St. James the Least. As she walks up the aisle, you can sense her counting the pillars until she reaches the right one, which then allows her to sit in front of it. I have speculated that if I ever had that pillar removed, then the following Sunday, she would have a complete mental collapse.

One Sunday a visiting family arrived early and sat down; three people in an empty church seating 200. Colonel Wainwright and his wife were the first of our regulars to arrive and froze in horror. The Colonel said in a deafening whisper to his wife: "There's someone sitting in our pew." At least they had the grace – no matter how reluctant – for one week, to sit somewhere else. Unlike the Prentice family of husband, wife and three children, who arrived to discover that a visiting family of husband, wife and four children were sitting in their pew; six people in a pew that held eight. Or, it normally holds eight. That Sunday, it held thirteen.

We at least have one iconoclast in Miss Pemberton, who makes a point of sitting in a different place every week. This thoroughly unsettles the rest of the congregation, who fear she may sit in their seats during her nomadic wanderings. I sometimes wonder if she has a chart at home with all the pew spaces marked on it and she strikes one off each week as she returns home.

Occasionally the unexpected can happen. Mrs Cholmondeley arrived one week in good time, settled herself in her accustomed place, but half-way through the Service suddenly ran out of the building. Ten minutes later, she was back and in her usual place once again. It was only when the church filled with the smell of burned bacon that we understood.

That is why replacing pews with chairs in your church was a mistake. Pews can never be moved. You know where everybody is – or should be!

Your loving uncle, Eustace
