Pastoral Letter

Dear Friends,

For many people their summer holiday will be a dim and distant memory. Some folks will be focusing on the October break with a sense of freedom from the daily routine. I mentioned

'Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it' before Audrey and I travelled to Malta this year. This is the first time we have visited the island and it was a great place to explore. We visited the Grand Harbour and the various islands associated with Malta. There were accounts of the Knights of Malta and their construction work, the hospitality they offered and the place of safety to those involved in the crusades. This was all very interesting. During the war Malta was a strategically important island and held out against bombardment and siege. It held out against the enemy and at the end of the War was awarded the George Cross. An emblem of this award is part of the Maltese flag today.

While in Malta we were delighted to meet up with some folks from home. Some were in the neighbouring hotel others in a nearby town. None of this was planned and it was delightful to meet up with friends so far away from home. There was something about meeting them out of context. Seeing really familiar faces in an unfamiliar place. Sharing some time with them enhanced the holiday. The welcome you give and receive can often shape the mood of a trip.

Thinking of how Malta was historically a place of hospitality I was aware of the welcome we extend to others. Some known to us and others not known to us. The Bible often speaks of hospitality. In the letter to the Hebrews you read these words ‘Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.’ Jesus says in Matthew 25 “ ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’

The challenge of my holiday to Malta and my constant reading of the bible must be to practice hospitality.

As Jesus said ‘Go and do likewise’

Kindest regards

Mak.

Dates for Your Diary

Reap a good harvest

If you've been out and about in the countryside in recent months, you'll have noticed that there was a bumper crop of blackberries and other fruit this year. That was no accident. It was because, from Spring onwards, there has been just the right amount of heat and cold, rain and sun, to make the plants bring forth their best.

It's the same when we are making Jesus known. Only God knows if the people we meet are ready to respond to the Gospel. We might be simply planting a seed, and that person still has years to go, or it may be that the person is finally ready to become a follower of Jesus.

This autumn, as we prepare for Christmas, let's be intentional – praying for friends and family members who don't yet know Jesus. Let's ask God for opportunities to sensitively share the Good News of Jesus. And let's be ready to serve and speak in Jesus name.

Harvest Festival

Harvest Festival this year will be celebrated on Sunday 08 October.

Donations will be gratefully received and should be brought to Church on the Sunday morning. Donations can either be produce or, if you prefer, a monetary donation. Suggestions for produce are: cereals, tinned soup / meat / fish / vegetables / tinned fruit. Also acceptable are tea, coffee, sugar, rice, pulses, red / brown sauce and vinegar. No fresh products please.

British Summer Time ends
on Sunday 29th October. Please remember to put your clocks and watches
BACK one hour before retiring on the Saturday evening or you will be too early for Church.

The summer may be over,
And Winter drawing near,
But now, it's time for meetings,
For friendship, warmth and cheer.

There's purple on the
mountains,
And beauty all around
With here and there a summer
rose
Still waiting to be found.

It's time for reminiscing,
Recalling summer days,
For sharing hope and happy
thoughts
In many quiet ways.
A time of relaxation,
Of fellowship and joy,
Creating autumn memories,
That winter can't destroy.

The Guild

The Guild commences their new Session on Friday
06 October. Please note they will normally meet every second Friday. All are welcome, including gentlemen, to come along and enjoy the fellowship and listen to a varied selection of topics
throughout the Session year.

The first social event of this session will be THE TEAM QUIZ taking place on Friday 20th October starting at 7.30 pm. Come in a ready-made team of 6 (max), or join one made up on the night. It is a fun quiz so no university education needed, just a willingness to have a good time. Tickets cost £6 and light refreshments are included.

Accident

As my five-year-old son and I were heading to McDonald's one day, we passed a car accident. Usually when we see something terrible like that, we say a prayer for whoever might be hurt, so I pointed and said to my son, "We should pray." From the back seat I heard his earnest voice: "Dear God, please don't let those cars block the entrance to McDonald's."

Samaritan's Purse Lunch Box Operations Christmas Child 2017

Each year at St. David's Memorial Park church we start our Operation Christmas Child Appeal with a Samaritan's Purse Lunch Box event – this year it will take place on Saturday 28 October 2017. The event will give everyone the opportunity to buy toys, toiletries, sweets and knitted goods with which you can make up a box. We will also have filled boxes for sale, ready on the day, and wrapped boxes which you can buy and fill. You can also buy our goods as “stocking fillers” for a youngster.

The event will start at 10.30am and go on to 1.30pm. You can, of course, enjoy some fine hospitality; tea or coffee plus cake and scone followed later by lunch and some hearty soup and filled rolls.

Please come along to this event and help us to bring some love, light and joy to children suffering from war disease and famine.

Thank you.

Thank You Prayer

Father,

You are almighty and all powerful. You created the universe and yet you love and care for each one of us. Thank you. Thank you for loving us so much that you sent your precious Son Jesus to save us when we couldn't save ourselves. Thank you for offering life forever with you to all who trust in Jesus and what He did on the cross. Thank you for today. Help us to use it to reflect your love to others.

In Jesus name, Amen.

Others

If it's true that we are here to help others, then what exactly are the others here for?

Dear Colleagues,

Together We Pray is a national prayer initiative, running from September 2017 to May 2018, calling the Church to come together in prayer. This year, the General Assembly asked the Church to focus on praying for God to renew us and particularly to pray as we think about priorities for the future.

The call to prayer grew out of last year's On the Road initiative when meetings were held around the country to listen to the hopes and concerns of church members and to explore the challenges of ministry and discipleship in the 21st century.

Throughout the year, we will support your efforts through preparing prayer resources (that will be available online over the course of the initiative) and highlighting opportunities to pray for the future work of the Church. In particular, there will be a National Day of Prayer on November 25 in which we hope you will want to be involved. We encourage you to meet on this day in a small group, as a congregation or even as a Presbytery.

Alongside the National Day of Prayer, look out for the brand new How we Pray series, On the Road events, the Prayer Diary, Advent and more throughout the year. Find out more at www.churchofscotland.org.uk/togetherwepay.

We would appreciate if you could please pass this email on to those you think will be interested.

Watch our launch video here to find out more about what will be coming up.

Best wishes,

Sally Bonnar (Convener of the Council of Assembly) and Martin Scott (Secretary to the Council of Assembly)

The Rectory . . .

St James the Least
My dear Nephew Darren

Having informed you of why clergy must always wear black shoes in church, my belief is that all those who hold any office in church should be similarly dressed.

Altar servers have the tendency to arrive wearing what I am informed are called trainers. Were they black it would be tolerable, but they seem to be without exception either brilliant white or luminous pink. When they arrive so attired I insist they remove them and serve in the sanctuary in their socks. Since our church floor is several degrees colder than permafrost, it normally takes them the rest of the morning with their feet in a bucket of hot water before circulation returns. They do not make that mistake a second time.

The rule applies to members of the choir also; my only concession is that ladies are allowed to wear shoes with heels. But that can present its own hazards. Miss Threlfall recently appeared in heels that, by chance, were the exact size and shape of the holes in our beautiful Victorian heating gratings in the nave floor. During the procession at the start of the Service, her heel wedged in one. She is a lady of some determination and refused to stop, thereby holding up the procession and letting the congregation know something was amiss. So she proceeded, now with a twelve inch square cast iron grid firmly attached to her foot. As she gallantly clanked up the aisle, rocking slightly since one leg was now several stones heavier, one of our basses, completely innocent of what had happened, stepped into thin air. Half of his body disappeared vertically downwards as the other half proceeded in a horizontal easterly direction, scattering tenors like skittles. I continue to visit him in hospital.

Our organist arrives wearing black shoes, but once hidden in the organ loft, removes them and plays the organ in soft shoes. Or he did; these days he never removes his shoes at all. At Evensong on Sundays, my dog comes with me to swell the congregation and wanders round the church benignly as the Service progresses. After one Service, our organist came to retrieve his shoes only to find them missing. Their absence was inexplicable - until two weeks later when I found them buried in the Rectory rose garden.

Churchwardens, of course, know the rules for correct footwear - that is why they have been elected to serve in such a distinguished office - although I do feel that Admiral Hopkinson's practice of wearing white spats on top of his shoes when the bishop is here, a little excessive - even rather flash.

Maintaining this dress policy once you have your own church, will be maintaining the true faith.

Your loving uncle, Eustace
