Pastoral Letter

February 2012

Dear Friends,

Over the past month a highlight for me has been my visit to Rome. Along with my eldest son Ross I visited the Eternal City and took in the sites. It is often called the Eternal City because it has taken a significant role in the history of Europe. We visited the Colosseum where the Gladiators fought, the Trevi fountain which is named after the young girl who supposedly took Agrippa's thirsty soldiers to its source. Trevi means three ways and the fountain sits in a section where three streets come together. We also visited the Spanish steps one of the widest stair cases in Europe. Our visit to the Hark Rock Cafe was also memorable.

One morning, early, we visited St Peter's Basilica. It is a grand building. It is claimed to have the largest interior of any Christian Church in the world. It is Baroque architecture in its highest form. Visiting the Sistine Chapel brought so many pictures to life and placed them in context.

The contrast between the teaching of Jesus, and how the church throughout the ages has attempted to express its faith seem miles apart. From the Carpenter in Galilee to the magnificent Church buildings that pepper the sky line we must make a huge leap. We have the buildings and they are part of our history and heritage. However on several occasions during our trip we saw how the Church was attempting to draw folks eyes upward to God. There were clearly places for personal devotion, meditation and reflection. There were spiritual books to read, pictures to see and music to listen to. It was important to make the internal spiritual journey while soaking up the relics of a bye-gone age. We were encouraged to look at the true treasure of our faith.

In our own daily journey it may not be the significant sites of an Eternal City, it may not be years of history and preservation, but there may be other things that distract us. It may be a preoccupation with a person or event, it may be the pressure of work, money, time. There will be other distractions that need to be put in their place, or left in their place, in order that we may feed our soul.

Jesus said 'Wherever your treasure is there will your heart be also' -- what do we really treasure -- the faith and the people around us.

Kindest Regards

Mark .

Communion . . .

Dear Friends,

In the future St Mary's will have four main communions in the year. There will also be a celebration of communion on Maunday Thursday of Holy Week and on Easter morning. We will be moving to four Communion services a year beginning this March. Two of our Communion services will be in the manner traditionally adopted at St Mary's, that is by using 'The Common Cup', and bread that each individual breaks a piece from. The wine used with the 'Common Cup' is an alcoholic sherry. The other two Communion services will use small individual glasses and the bread will already be cut. The wine in the individual glasses will be alcohol free. Both methods of celebrating Holy Communion are equally valid and symbolically rich. The Kirk Session in coming to this decision are responding to requests from the congregation. Nothing is being taken away from the life of the church and it is our hope that those who may have felt excluded through our traditional practice will acknowledge the invitation and attend these additional communions.

kindest regards

Mark .

Safeguarding Seminar

As a Church and a community we are committed to protecting vulnerable groups wherever we may come across such people in our midst. To assist members in identifying and reporting instances where a child or an adult may be subject to some form of abuse and unable to defend themselves, we are holding a breakfast morning seminar on Saturday 25th February at 9.00 a.m. The event will start with breakfast and then a short presentation on the importance of proper safeguarding procedures. There will then be an opportunity to discuss particular scenarios and how they should be dealt with before finishing with a general discussion. The seminar is of importance not only to those undertaking a pastoral role in the Church or who work with one of the organisations within the Church, but to anyone who has any questions about safeguarding procedures or would like to know more about protecting the vulnerable.

Breakfast will be available from 9.00 a.m. and we would hope to finish around 11.30 a.m. To help us with the catering can you let me know if you are intending to come along by completing your details on the slip enclosed with this Parishioner and placing it in the Session Clerk pigeonhole next to the Church office or placing it in the basket on the table at the front door of the Church on Sundays 12th & 19th February. Thank you.

Prayer Secretary

Dear Friends . . .

Last time I wrote that we were waiting for Christmas and the dawn of another year. Now it's over and we are still waiting - for the first spring flowers, for holidays. The shops aren't just waiting to sell Easter Eggs, they are already, in brightly coloured displays. I hope you will be blessed with good health in 2012. The piece I have chosen this month is from page 1 of 'Prayer and Personal Devotion' by Martin Isreal.

Yours, Margaret

Personal Devotion

Prayer is the ascent of the mind to God; it is also the fellowship of the soul with God. The former stresses the personal aspect of prayer, while the latter brings in the important element of shared devotion in a community of seekers after the divine presence. Let it be said at once that we can never find God; on the contrary, it is He who makes Himself known to us when we are quiet and attentive. He stands patiently at the soul's doors, where He knocks for admission, but until we are sufficiently still, we will fail to hear His call, and +so continue in blind abandon with our present activities, in the meantime becoming increasingly agitated, distracted and fatigued. Indeed, our own emotional disorder causes more tiredness than does the busy routine of daily living. Furthermore, we are deflected from doing what is immediately in front of us as we fight imaginary emotional battles in our uneasy minds. We tend to spend too much time meeting troubles halfway that we forget the immediate work ahead of us and are oblivious of the wonder of the world around us.

Organisations Accounts 2011

Will all treasurers of the Church organisations please note the following members of the finance committee have agreed to be auditors for that year:

Jim More Gordon Sinclair John Pears Lewis Wilson
Hugh Biggans

It is important that these accounts are available as soon as possible, especially those which are incorporated into the Church Accounts, which should be completed by 31 March 2011. Please therefore approach one of the auditors and provide your records to him/her no later than 29 February 2012.

The Parishioner

Copy for the March Parishioner should be handed to Sandra Burns, left in the Publications pigeon hole in the Hall vestibule, or sent by e-mail to sandraburns@ntlworld.com no later than Sunday 26 February.

VISITORS ARE WELCOME

St Mary's is a sit anywhere Church and visitors are always welcome. If you feel there should be more to life than retail therapy and Friday night clubbing, try coming along to the 11 o'clock service on Sunday morning. You may hear something to change how you value your life and your relationships with those around you. You don't have to join up to join in.

The Church office is located on the right as you enter the Church Halls. The secretary, Mrs Lynn Hay, is available in the office Monday to Friday 9.15 a.m. – 12.15 p.m. and may be the first point of contact for general enquiries. Lynn will be able to refer you to the person best suited to respond. Church office telephone and fax 0141 775 1166 or e-mail: office.stmarys@btconnect.com

Christian Aid

Christian Aid launches emergency appeal for typhoon victims in the Philippines

Christian Aid has launched an emergency appeal to enable its partner organisations in the Philippines to reach more people who have lost their homes and livelihoods in floods caused by Typhoon Washi, which struck the southern island of Mindanao late last year.

Christian Aid, which has already allocated £50,000 to relief work, will distribute emergency supplies in the Cagayan de Oro port area, such as: rice, mineral water, canned goods and cooking oil as well as mats, blankets, mosquito nets and cooking utensils. These will go to 700 families in Consolacion and another 250 families in Macasandig.

Christian Aid Fair

Kirkintilloch and Lenzie Christian Aid group are holding their annual fair in St Mary's Church Hall on Saturday, March 3, 2011 from 10.30am-1.30pm. Once again St Mary's will be operating the paper stall. Donations of paper items, e.g. stationery, toilet rolls, colouring-in books etc. would be appreciated and can be handed into the Church Office or placed in the vestibule up to March 2. St Mary's is also staffing the antiques stall and a few new helpers are required. Anybody interested in helping this stall for one hour please contact Paul Malcolm 578 1520. Thank you for your support.

Life and Work

The annual subscription for 'Life and Work' is £17.40 for 12 issues and is now due. Single copies may be purchased for £1.80 each from the rack in the vestibule – while stocks last. Previous subscribers should use the envelope enclosed with this Parishioner, or you can obtain one from the desk in the vestibule of the Church, as can new subscribers. The content of this Church of Scotland Magazine is very varied, including a letters page, feature articles by various people, Church news from around the country to name but a few. Why not give it a go – even if it is only one issue – we're sure you will then wish to subscribe.

St Mary's Junior Badminton

Season 2011-2012 has been in full swing for the junior club since the beginning of September. In that time we have trained two coaches and sent squads of players to 3 Glasgow Juniors badminton events. While this is all going on the club still meets on Tuesdays and Sundays for the normal diet of practice and play. Here are some of our activities in more detail.

Two of our rising seniors, 16-21 year olds, expressed an interest in working with the junior club last season. At the AGM of the main club, the members voted to send Renz Cruz and Craig Smith on a coaching course to obtain the nationally recognized Badminton Scotland qualification. With some advice from Badminton Scotland we obtained a 50% grant from Sports Scotland towards the men's fees. Glasgow Juniors agreed to fund 50% of the remainder and so the club eventually only paid 25% of the original tuition fees for the course. Both Renz and Craig now work regularly with the young players and we would hope to repeat this process in years to come. Many thanks to Renz and Craig for their commitment.

Glasgow Juniors held a singles event on the 2nd of October at the Cockburn Centre. We work at the Glasgow Juniors events and it's great to see the St Mary's kids and parents turning up in numbers to participate. We had approximately 16 players at this event out of a total entry of 50. Beth Seggie, James Paterson and Renz Cruz all won their respective groups. BTW, James was one of the cyclists on the Glasgow to Edinburgh bike ride, or eat-fest as it became for both James and Thomas Hay. The cakes and milk which Mark Johnstone has referred to in the past obviously did James's badminton no harm at all! The Glasgow Juniors Doubles event was a little quieter when it was held at the end of October with 20 entered pairs. We were represented by 14 players in 7 pairs. The tournament was played in 4 groups and St Mary's won three of them.

Congratulations to Steven and Scott Curran, Lisa Begg and Vicki Archer and Renz Cruz and Andrew Ironside who were all successful.

The Glasgow Juniors Team Event is held on the Sunday of the Scottish International weekend at the Kelvin Hall. In previous years we used to pick three teams and take them to the event in our own cars. Things have changed over recent years and parental support within the club is now so great that we can arrange to participate in outside events and the parents will bring their children along for us. This season 33 players asked to play. One young lady had to withdraw after hurting her foot and so the remaining 32 players formed eight teams. All 32 got to the Kelvin Hall with their parents help and they all played well. The other clubs in the league also supported the event well and the total entry exceeded 100 players, 27 teams of 4. There are 12 courts in the main sports hall at the Kelvin Hall and it was simply fantastic to look down the hall and see so many youngsters playing badminton. Everywhere we looked you could see players belting shuttles and there were St Mary's players in the thick of it all over the hall. Four of our teams won their mini league but unfortunately only one team won their playoff match against the winner of the similar level league. The winning team was St Mary's 3 which was an all girls team of Sara Shu, Haihui Yan, Emma Lowe and Claire Surgeon who was the team captain. Well played ladies. The first half of the season was very busy and it seems to have passed very quickly. In the second half there are two further Glasgow Juniors events to play in and our own club championship on the 4th February. Our numbers are approximately 50 and there are 4 names on the waiting list. The junior club continues to be successful and we must express our thanks to the congregation for the use of their hall. No hall, no badminton club, it's that simple. Thank you all very much.

Session report

The first Session of the New Year was a time for everyone to catch up on the business of the Church after the festive break.

As you might expect, storm damage to the Church formed part of the Fabric Convenor's report. Whilst we had recently carried out repairs to the roof, the high winds resulted in more damage. We have been in contact with our insurers and the repairs to latest storm damage are being organised. Our Fabric Convenor, David Tinto, also provided an update on the hall curtains which also require some attention. We are grateful to David and his team for their hard work.

At the moment Fabric and Finance seem intertwined in that maintaining the fabric of the building costs money. Hugh, our Finance Convenor provided an update on the accounts that are being prepared and more details will be provided in due course. Our Youth Convenor, Garry Burns, let Session know of some interesting initiatives the Committee are considering and we wish them well with these.

You will have noticed in the Order of Service we have been publicising the Nursery as we look to maximise the number of children attending. Part of running the Nursery nowadays involves submitting a tender application to the local authority in order to secure a funding contribution from the local authority towards the cost of the children attending. It is a time consuming and challenging exercise and again we can only express our thanks and appreciation to the Convenor, Gordon Morrison, his Committee and the staff for taking this on.

Mary Stirling reported that preparations were going well for the Burns supper and having prepared this report after the event I know it was a successful event enjoyed by all.

Finally Publications and their Convenor Sandra Burns have asked for help with delivering the Parishioner as we have lost a few Elders and we would like to arrange for some help to deliver the Parishioners in the districts that have fallen vacant. This would involve usually one evening or afternoon a month visiting 4 or 5 homes. If this is something you would be interested in please let me know.

My thanks to all the Convenors for their continuing hard work.

Charles Hay, Session Clerk

Sharing of Marriage ...

The old man placed an order for one hamburger, French fries and a drink. He unwrapped the plain hamburger and carefully cut it in half, placing one half in front of his wife. He then carefully counted out the French fries, dividing them into two piles and neatly placed one pile in front of his wife. He took a sip of the drink, his wife took a sip and then set the cup down between them. As he began to eat his few bites of hamburger, the people around them were looking over and whispering. Obviously they were thinking, 'That poor old couple – all they can afford is one meal for the two of them'. As the man began to eat his fries a young man came to the table and politely offered to buy another meal for the old couple. The old man said they were just fine – they were used to sharing everything. People closer to the table noticed the little old lady hadn't eaten a bite. She sat there watching her husband eat and occasionally taking turns sipping the drink. Again, the young man came over and begged them to let him buy another meal for them. This time the old woman said 'No, thank you, we are used to sharing everything'. Finally, as the old man finished and was wiping his face neatly with the napkin the young man again came over to the little old lady, who had yet to eat a single bite of food and asked 'What is it you are waiting for?' She answered – 'THE TEETH'.

You an start again!

'You will give me added years of life, as rich and full as those of many generations, all packed into one.' Psalm 61.6

A man out walking in the early Spring saw a bird's nest lying on the ground. It had been destroyed by a storm. He thought sadly of the time and work it must have taken to build it, but suddenly his thoughts were interrupted by a bird singing. When he looked up into the tree, he saw a wonderful sight: the little bird was busy building another nest!

You can't go back. You can't rewrite the past! But you don't have to wallow in regret or remorse. Your experiences have made you the person you are today and, if you're still breathing, then you can start your life over again, beginning right now! David blew it – his mistakes were bigger than most people's, but he decided not to be a prisoner of his past. He prayed: 'You will give me added years of life as rich and as full of those of many generations, all packed into one.' Psalm 61.6. Get your eyes off the rear view mirror! All of us have things we wish we had done differently – or hadn't done at all. What is past is past. Put it under the forgiveness of a merciful God and move on. Your best days are ahead if you can accept this promise and move on it.

What kind of motor vehicles are in the Bible?

Jehovah drove Adam and Eve out of the Garden in a Fury. David's Triumph was heard throughout the land. Honda... because the apostles were all in one Accord. Volkswagen Beetle: 2 Cor. 4:8 "We are pressed in every way, but not cramped beyond movement."

Kiss Kiss

An honest seven-year-old admitted calmly to her parents that Billy Brown had kissed her after class. "How did that happen?" gasped her mother. "It wasn't easy," admitted the young lady, "but three girls helped me catch him."

GEORGE HERBERT

Born the seventh of 10 children in 1593, George Herbert grew up to be well known as a scholar and became a Member of Parliament. In 1630 he became a parish priest and spent the rest of his life in a small Wiltshire village. He preached, wrote poetry, helped rebuild the church and cared deeply for his parishioners who called him the 'Holy Mr. Herbert'.

He died aged 40 of tuberculosis, and perhaps we would never have heard of him were it not for his poems. He hid patterns and puns in his poems: in one called 'Easter Wings' the printed words look like the wings of birds soaring into the sky. A number of his poems became hymns, such as 'King of Glory, King of Peace', 'Let All the World in Every Corner Sing' and 'Teach me, my God and King'.

There is a window
honouring George
Herbert in Westminster Abbey, but he lives on in the words of hymns that are still sung today.

Some poems rhyme
But this one doesn't!
