Pastoral Letter

May 2016

Dear Friends,

'When the day of Pentecost came they were all together in one place'
(Acts 2:1).

The day of Pentecost is named after the Greek word pentekostos, which means 'fiftieth' and refers to the feast of 'Weeks', fifty days after Passover and Easter.

The first followers of Jesus were 'all in one place'. Not only the disciples, but the hundred and twenty men and women who had chosen to follow him. They were together praying and waiting upon the risen Christ. The Greek word suggests they were all of one mind. Then suddenly a mighty sound filled the house, it is like a wind. This is the gift of the Holy Spirit who comes to all those who wait upon the Lord.

The suggestion the early disciples were of one mind is challenging. Many had come from different places; there was the challenge of the faith being opened to non Jews and there was the fear running deep in the hearts of the believers. We are told in spite of this 'They were one'.

In our current political, economic, social and even personal situation we perhaps more readily see division and separation. We hear of well known retailers closing and we fear for the unemployed. We hear of some areas of heavy industry being challenged by foreign imports. We see people moving from war torn countries or economically challenged areas of the world seeking safety and security for themselves and their children. The media ask us to 'vote' —'In' or 'Out' one political party or EU. It can feel like, division, division everywhere.

Let us seek unity in Church and community that the greater good may be served and the witness of Pentecost proclaimed — 'where all are one'.

Kindest regards

Mark.

Christian Aid

Our annual lunch will take place on Sunday 22nd May. A choice of soups will be available after the service on this Sunday. Money raised will be added to that collected in the area and sent to support the work done by Christian Aid.

Fund Raising Lunch for the Roof

Our final lunch for this session to help raise money for the roof will be held on Sunday 12th June. Whilst it will take the form of a baked potato lunch, as this coincides with the weekend of the Queen's official birthday, there will be a few 'extras' to help us celebrate.

Come along and have lunch with us to celebrate a 'special official birthday', to add to the £1000+ already raised by these lunches for the roof and to enjoy the company of family and friends as you eat.

The Christian Aid Fair

which had been due to be held in March had to be cancelled due to the works going on outside the Church. This will now be held in the Church Hall on 17 September 2016.

Nursery News for April/May 2016

We have now sourced a sink for the mud kitchen being developed outside - thanks to all the parents who have helped with this so far. There are still some jobs to be done to complete this, so please let us know if you would like to give us a hand.

Our new snack menu is now up and running. This has been developed in line with the "Setting the Table" document and has been created with input from children, parents/carers and staff. It is displayed on the table in the corridor. Children will also be involved in preparing snack for their peers by helping to peel and chop fruit and vegetables, etc.

Nursery Support Teacher

Last term, Karen Cowie our EDC Nursery Support Teacher, was involved with our workshops in "Nurturing Children" and developing plans for our sensory area in the Star Room. We look forward to Karen joining us again this term as we complete this new area. A photograph of Karen will be displayed in the corridor on the mornings she is in nursery.

Promoting Independence

We encourage children to develop their independence whilst at nursery. Some of the skills being developed include independently brushing teeth, changing shoes, putting on jackets, going to the toilet and washing hands. Children are also involved in preparing snack and developing skills such as spreading butter or cheese on crackers etc.

Review

With help from many of our parents/carers we have managed to have lots of trips into the wider community this year -we could not do them without you. Overall the trips have been an enormous success and our children have had the opportunity not only to experience new activities but also to go on different types of transport. Children thoroughly enjoy this aspect of the trips in addition to the workshops, developing both their skills and knowledge.

During May, we will be issuing a service evaluation for all parents/carers to complete. This will offer you the opportunity to give your views regarding trips and other aspects of the nursery. Your views are important to us as it allows us to continually improve, plan and reflect on our service and practice.

The silent sermon

A member of a certain church, who had previously attended services regularly, stopped going. After a few weeks, the minister decided to visit him. He found the man at home all alone, sitting by a blazing fire. Guessing the reason for his minister's visit, the man welcomed him awkwardly, and led him to a comfortable chair near the fireplace and waited.

The minister made himself at home, but said nothing. In the grave silence, he contemplated the dance of the flames around the burning logs. After some minutes, he took the fire tongs, carefully picked up a brightly burning ember and placed it to one side of the hearth all alone. Then he sat back in his chair, still silent.

The host watched all this in quiet contemplation. As the one lone ember's flame flickered and diminished, there was a momentary glow and then its fire was no more. Soon it was cold and dead.

Not a word had been spoken since the initial greeting. But now the minister chose this time to leave. He slowly stood up, picked up the cold, dead bit of coal and placed it back in the middle of the fire. Immediately it began to glow once more, with the light and warmth of the burning coals around it. With that, the minister smiled at his host, and quietly let himself out.

Christ is All-in-All

We hold you and your treatment
at the heart of every prayer,
And we ask our God who loves you
Just to hold you in His care.

May He make His presence known
To you in every way He can
While the healing balm of Christ is placed
In the hands of mortal man.

So may the good Lord bless you
As He holds you in His grace;
And may He ever let His peace
Be known in every place

Where your journeying will lead you;
In whatever may befall:
That you will know in everything
How Christ is all-in-all.

Walking out

“I hope you didn’t take it personally, Reverend,” said an embarrassed woman after a church service, “when my husband walked out during your sermon.” “I did find it rather disconcerting,” the preacher admitted. “It’s not a reflection on you, sir,” insisted the church-goer. “Ralph has been walking in his sleep ever since he was a child.”

The Rectory . . .

*St James the Least
My dear Nephew Darren*

So you are beginning to plan your first Summer Fete in your new parish. That you appear to be looking forward to it shows how little you know about them.

Parishes hold Summer Fêtes so that their clergy can preach more meaningfully on purgatory. Their ostensible purpose is to raise money for the church - which is wholly illogical. The parish could double the money raised if the Fête were dropped, none of the endless preparations made, if everyone spent a pleasant afternoon in their own gardens and each person simply donated £20 to the church instead. But we still feel obliged to go to endless trouble, making ourselves miserable so we can show each other what a good time we are having. That it generally pours seems to make the entire event even more grimly satisfying.

No, the real reasons for a Summer Fête are twofold. First, it gives the entire parish the chance to inspect the Rector's garden. Whatever state it is in, it will cause disapproval. If it is poorly kept, then I am clearly being ungrateful for having three acres of lawn to enjoy. Mowing it each week should be one of my delights; what else would I do with a whole day off each week anyway? The hand mower, kindly given by Colonel French is assumed to be quite adequate - and rumour has it that I need to lose weight anyway. The mower was presented to me when the Colonel bought his own gardener a sit-on motor mower - which is of a size and opulence that makes me assume it has a drinks cabinet and satellite navigation.

The second reason for a Fête comes as a special perk for the organisers. It gives them a chance to inspect the inside of the Rectory. Under the pretence of looking for a little more sugar, they can systematically inspect all the kitchen cupboards and comment on their contents. By the end of the day, the whole parish will know what marmalade I spread on my toast, that I use unnecessarily expensive washing powder, and where I have unsuccessfully tried to hide the gin.

The details of what then happens while the Fête is in progress must wait until my next letter, when we will have had our own. It is now time for Evensong, drinks with Major Mallet and his wife, and then a quiet evening with a good book, while I toy with other possible hiding places for the gin this year.

Your loving uncle, Eustace

THE LADY & THE LAMP

On 12th May 1820 a baby girl was born who changed the way that we care for people who are ill. Florence Nightingale grew up at a time when only the worst kind of person became a nurse but she had an idea of the way things could be. Her chance to change things came with the Crimean War.

Florence travelled there with a few others and started work in the military hospital at Scutari where conditions were dreadful: wounded soldiers were left lying in dirt without proper food or care and most of them died. The army doctors already there didn't want Miss Nightingale or her nurses, but gradually they improved conditions. The nurses scrubbed and cleaned as well as caring for the wounded and the soldiers began to recover. Florence Nightingale was called the Lady with the Lamp because she would walk the wards at night, checking on patients. After the war, with the support of Queen Victoria, Florence was able to improve hospital care for everyone.

It was the festival of Pentecost, 50 days since Passover and Jews from many countries had come to Jerusalem to celebrate.

The Apostles and other believers were all together in one place when they heard a sound like a strong wind and saw what looked like tongues of fire which spread out and touched each person.

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to talk in other languages as the Spirit enabled them.

A crowd gathered outside, they were all excited because each of them heard the believers speaking in their own language about the great things God had done.

About 3,000 people heard, believed and were baptised that day!
