Pastoral Letter

September 2011

Dear Friends,

I promise not to start all of my letters with a phrase like... '... When I was with the Queen in Balmoral....' But please indulge me a moment or two in this, the first letter since my visit to Balmoral Castle and the Parish of Crathie Kirk. The congregations of Braemar and Crathie wished me to bring their greetings and good wishes back to St Mary's.

While worshiping in these other churches I was so aware of everyone gathering at St Mary's and the connection through worship we would have. It was the same readings from the Bible, the same Hymns and the same faithful people gathering to listen for God's word for them today. In St Mary's, Braemar and Crathie, the people of God had gathered for worship.

I was honoured to be invited to lead worship at Crathie and stay with the Queen at Balmoral. The welcome I received was warm, authentic and meaningful. The Queen had a genuine interest in Kirkintilloch, the Church of Scotland and my family. The Christian faith was very much at the centre of our conversation. The Queen demonstrated a deep understanding of the issues facing the Church today. It was clear she saw her office as sacred, with a belief that God has called her to serve.

During my conversation I was aware that we often fail to see God in our own calling and work. We often think it is all about 'us' and the choices we have made. When you think about those who have recognized their call it can be an inspiration.

As I reflect upon my visit and share some of the stories, I will try to encourage others to know they are called by God to serve.

Yours Mark J.

Prayer Secretary

Dear Friends . . .

I hope you have had some of the sunshine which, once in a while, made up the summer and are now looking forward to the start of the 'Church Year' and meeting friends at the various activities. Looking through my books I found this version of the 23rd Psalm written many years ago by a seaman. I found it in 'In Quietness and Confidence' edited and compiled by Mary Oakley and I hope you like it.

A Sea Captain's Version of the 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my pilot. I shall not drift.
He lighteth me across the dark waters.
He steereth me in deep channels.
He keepeth my log.
He guideth me by the star of holiness for
His Name's sake.

Yea, though I sail mid the thunders and tempests of life, I will dread no danger,
for Thou art with me,
Thy love and Thy care shelter me.

Thou preparest a harbour before me in the homeland of eternity.
Thou anointest the waves with oil,
My ship rideth calmly.

Surely sunlight and starlight shall favour me in the voyage I take, and I will rest in the port of my god for ever.

John Roberts, 1874.

Yours Margaret.

VISITORS ARE WELCOME

St Mary's is a sit anywhere Church and visitors are always welcome. If you feel there should be more to life than retail therapy and Friday night clubbing, try coming along to the 11 o'clock service on Sunday morning. You may hear something to change how you value your life and your relationships with those around you. You don't have to join up to join in.

St Mary's Nursery School

St. Mary's Nursery School thanks all those who collected Tesco and Sainsbury's vouchers on their behalf. These have now been sent off with orders for new resources. Thank you again for your support.

Harvest Festival

We celebrate Harvest on Sunday 09 October and the theme is Creation. Our young people will be producing Art Work, singing songs and there may be a bit of Drama too! As St. Mary's is now committed to being an Eco Friendly Congregation, we will be exploring ways of SAVING THE PLANET. Come and join us. It should be fun!

The Harvest Committee this year comprises: Jim More, John Marran, Archie Morrison and Gordon Morrison.

Boys' Brigade

The Junior Section, together with Shipmates held their parents evening at the end of May, which was well attended and enjoyed by everyone. All the boys, as well as some of the parents, participated in the fun of the games. Awards were presented to the following:

Gold Awards - Lewis Penman, Ryan Ormiston and Ryan Campbell

Robert Beveridge Scripture Knowledge - Lewis Penman

Officers Special Award - Craig Stevenson

John Lang Award for Endeavour - Robbie Hay

New Session Commence Dates

Boys' Brigade starts back on Monday 05 September from 6.45 – 8.30 p.m. The Leaders look forward to seeing the boys then and welcoming any new ones.

The Shipmates also start back on Monday 5 September from 6.00-7.00 p.m. They are looking for some extra help this year as there are only three of them coping with around 24 boys. There are another 6 boys on the waiting list eligible to join and unless they get this additional help it means some little ones may not get to enjoy an hour of fun on a Monday evening. It would probably suit younger persons as the boys are a bit energetic!!!! If you can offer assistance, please contact Lindsey Campbell on 07979504862 or by e-mail lecampbell72@hotmail.com.

Not to mention the odd fish supper night, which is looked forward to with great relish!

Surely the aforementioned must have whetted your appetite by now; if so have a word with Archie Smith of Angus MacNeill. To date there have been a few enquiries and look forward to many more.

The Parishioner – September 2011 11

As Free as a Bird!

Today when we see or hear seagulls calling and swooping over our heads we give them very little thought or even wonder why they have to be so noisy and at times must create such a mess. For a small but very active group of people however the word seagull has a completely different connotation.

It is the name given to a charity run entirely by volunteers and completely self funded which provides free canal cruising for many of our most disadvantaged people in Scotland. It grew out of a vision of the Rev. Hugh Mackay minister of Ratho, a village outside Edinburgh. At a time when horizons for people with mobility problems or who were disabled in any way were very restricted he brought together a small group of willing people who began free canal cruising for disabled people along the Union Canal. From this small beginning in 1974, with one boat on one canal, the organisation has grown into one which has 4 branches and 9 boats cruising throughout the Central Lowlands and near Inverness.

Every year our volunteers freely give up their time to help keep Hugh Mackay's vision alive. Last year the Kirkintilloch Branch alone carried over 5000 passengers without charge on specially adapted boats making them accessible to everyone. The joy this brings to our passengers, many of whom have severe mobility problems, is apparent to anyone who sees them. For 2 hours both children and the elderly can cruise the canal with the same freedom as the rest of the population who take this for granted.

So next time you see and hear the seagulls remember they also represent the 9 small red boats who quietly and efficiently sail the canals of Scotland bringing much pleasure to many disadvantaged people.

CDs, Tapes and Things

From this month onwards the Sunday Service recordings will be made monthly and distributed with 'The Parishioner' to those who normally receive them, unless they have made other arrangements.

Safeguarding Policy Statement 2010

Ensuring a Safe Church for All

The Church of Scotland has a deep concern for the wholeness and well-being of each individual. Through its congregations, working together with the Safeguarding Service and statutory agencies, the Church seeks to safeguard the welfare of all people who come into contact with the Church and its services.

The Gospel proclaims that it is the responsibility of everyone within the fellowship of the Church to prevent harm, be it physical, sexual or emotional and we will always seek to reduce risk.

The Church's commitment to safeguarding reminds us that God cares passionately about the welfare and wellbeing of all people.

Further details of the Church's theology of Safeguarding can be found in the For of Such is the Kingdom of Heaven General Assembly Report, May 2009. www.churchofscotland.org.uk

"When she said to pay attention to her sermon because there would be questions later, I thought it was a joke."

Celebrating Ten Years of the Reopening of the Canal

Until 10 years ago the canal next to the church was closed and covered with algae and hardly an engaging feature of the town. It was possible to sail east or west along the canal from Kirkintilloch, but not through the town itself. 10 years ago all this changed when the canal was reopened as part of the millennium project and Kirkintilloch began promoting itself as the canal capital of Scotland. To celebrate this event there is going to be a gathering of boats in Falkirk during the September weekend. The boats, over 80 in all, are meeting at Bowling and then sailing in convoy, passing through Kirkintilloch on Saturday 24 September. They should reach the Southbank Marina by lunchtime, where they will stop for some lunch before progressing through Kirkintilloch and on to Auchinstarry for the night. It will take some time for all these boats to pass through and it will be quite a spectacle. Not even in the days when the Forth/Clyde Canal was a thriving canal full of barges carrying goods across Scotland have so many boats passed through the town in such a short time.

If you are not busy that day it will be a sight worth seeing as the boats make their way through the town and queue up to pass through Hillhead Bridge.

It was unfortunate that the Sunday School seaside outing forgot where they had buried the minister.

The Parishioner - September 2011 15

As you can see our offerings appear to be fallen marginally this year, however the amounts contributed to our Special Projects Fund totalling £15,001 (including gift aid), are not included in general offerings. A substantial part of these funds were donated anonymously and we wish to thank the donors. The Gift Aid recovery has increased substantially this year as a result of new members joining the scheme and increased donations from one member, which we wish to recognise with thanks. We would however remind members that this was the last year in which the top up scheme was in operation. In the current year we will lose approximately £3,000 if our level of income from gift aid remains unchanged. Please consider this matter carefully and if you can increase your giving this would be greatly appreciated.

We were fortunate to receive legacies totalling £5,050 during the year which has contributed to a small surplus rather than a deficit being incurred. Income from premises lets has increased this year as additional use was made of the Halls by outside organisations. In the current year we have increased our charges for the first time in three years, to take account of the rising costs of fuel etc.

After protracted correspondence with the Stewardship & Finance Department of the Church of Scotland we succeeded in having our allocation for Ministries & Mission reduced from their original calculation. The saving achieved was £3,667 for each of three years and the revised method will also result in substantial savings for all future years in which the Friends of St. Mary's Fund (formerly Special Projects Fund) operates. We have made savings in repairs as the Fabric Committee have been very diligent in obtaining good prices for work done. Heat & Light costs have risen substantially as a result not only of increased charges but the extreme winter weather.

We have made every effort to hold down costs and to maximise income wherever possible; however, over 60% of all offerings are taken up by contributions to Central Funds which puts severe restraints on what we can achieve locally.

The planning for the substantial repairs and improvements to our sanctuary is continuing but as Glasgow Presbytery are re-thinking their Presbytery Plan we are unable to make much progress at this time. The congregation will be kept up to date when any further news is available.

The beginning of autumn and Harvest time is here again, a time when we come together to thank God for all of his blessings.

Harvest is a popular time of the year with special school and church services. Baskets of fruit and vegetables, tins of baked beans and sliced mangos – all offerings from our garden or kitchen cupboards to be given to the sick or elderly or sold to raise money for those in other places who go hungry.

We thank God for all his gifts at Harvest. In the words of the harvest hymn we sing 'All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above, then thank the Lord... for all his love.' So even the humble tin of beans becomes a symbol of God's love and care for us.

BEAN CAKE

Well, it's not really made with baked beans but it looks as if it is...

You will need:

- 100 g (4 oz) margarine
- 100 g (4 oz) toffees
- 100 g (4 oz) pink and white marshmallows
- 100 g (4 oz) Rice Crispies

Grease and line a Swiss roll tin.

Put the margarine, toffees and marshmallows into a large saucepan and stir over a gentle heat until everything is melted together.

Take the pan off the heat and stir in the Rice Crispies.

Press the mixture into the prepared tin and leave to set in a cool place. Cut into squares when cold.

What do you get when you put three ducks in a box?

A box of quackers.

Why did the boy eat his homework?

The teacher told him it was a piece of cake.

What did the hungry computer eat?

Chips, one byte at a time.
