Charles Wesley's great hymn
for Easter:

Christ the Lord is risen today!

Jesus's death on the cross, and His resurrection on Easter morning are both part of the redemption story. Paul links them in this way: 'He was delivered for our offences [the Cross] and raised again [the Resurrection] for our justification' (Romans 4:25). Charles Wesley does likewise in his glorious Easter anthem.

Christ the Lord is risen today!
Sons of men and angels say.

Raise your songs
and triumph high
Sing, ye heavens,
thou earth reply.
Charles wrote
the hymn in 1739,
a year after his
Pentecost Sunday
evangelical conversion,
and the year in which he began his open-air

*Soar we now where Christ hath led
Following our exalted
Head.
Made like Him, like
Him we rise
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.*

preaching. Like all his hymns that followed in the next four decades, this hymn is full of New Testament references and allusions. A great stone was rolled into the opening of the grave where Jesus was laid, and as Matthew records, the Jewish authorities ‘made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and setting a guard’ (27:66). But all to no purpose! Christ, the Lord of Life, could not be imprisoned by death! Vain the stone, the watch, the seal Christ hath burst the gates of hell. Death in vain forbids Him rise Christ hath opened Paradise! The NT teaches that Christ’s resurrection was the Father’s seal of approval on His obedient life and atoning death. His resurrection was the proof that He was indeed Jesus Christ the Lord, as Paul argues in Romans 1:4. ‘Declared to be the Son of God ... by the resurrection from the dead.’ Charles Wesley works these great salvation truths into his verses. ‘Love’s redeeming work is done.’ ‘Once He died our souls to save.’ ‘Lives again our glorious King.’ ‘Where, O death, is now thy sting?’ ‘Second life we all receive.’ In our Heavenly Adam live.’ As our Lord promised His disciples long ago – and still promises us; ‘Because I live, you will also live’ (John 14:19).

The Resurrection of Christ, viewed as a historical fact, is only part of the NT teaching. His conquest of death He now shares with all His people. Christians are the people of the Resurrection! We are now ‘made alive with Christ;’ ‘raised up with Him,’ and already seated ‘in heavenly places’ (Ephesians 1:4–6). And Charles Wesley takes up this great theme of how believers share in their Lord’s resurrection power. Risen with Him we upward move Still we seek the things above ...

*Soar we now where Christ hath led Following our exalted Head.
Made like Him, like Him we rise
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.*

Christ has conquered hell!
Death has lost its sting!
The grave is spoiled!
What a Saviour! What a gospel!
What a glorious hope!

Church Garden and Grounds

Winter has come and gone. Spring is in the air and that means it is time to tend the gardens and surrounding areas of the Church. Our garden receives much praise from the passing public and we do have to maintain that high standard. New volunteers are required and would be much welcomed. Hours are flexible and always in decent weather; after all you choose your own hour(s). Please contact Garry Burns on 779 3306.

Listeners Circle

The next meeting of the Listeners Circle will be in the Session House on Friday 26th April at 2pm.

This is a week later than usual because of Easter. The music this month has been chosen by Moira Lawson and is the programme which was held over from February. As always, everyone is cordially invited to come along to enjoy a relaxing afternoon of music with a cup of tea/coffee and a chance to chat to one another in the interval.

Fashion Show

A Fashion Show is taking place in the Hall on Friday 26th April. Tickets costing £5 include light refreshments and go on sale on Sunday 7th April.

Church Open Days

Once again, Church will be open on the following Wednesdays until the end of 2019:

01st May, 05th June, 03rd July,
07th August, 04th September, 02nd October,
06th November, 04th December

Useful Information

If you are moving home, please let your Church Elder or Congregational Helper know your change of address in order that the Church Roll can be kept up-to-date. Please also inform them if you know of anyone who is ill or in hospital so that contact or a visit can be arranged. If we are not kept informed of these important aspects of Church life it is so easy to 'get lost in the loop'. If you read the magazine on line, you can contact the Church office on 0141 775 1166.

Session Report

Introduction . . .

A lot has happened since I was writing the last Session Report for the March Parishioner! To say it has been a busy time is definitely an understatement, but I am confident things will settle down in the coming months as new arrangements are in place and embedded. The main headlines for me:

Sunday 17th March

Mark's final service at St Mary's took place on the 17th March, as anticipated. This was a very emotional time for folks and definitely the end of an era. The service was beautifully conducted, as we have learned to expect – and also very appropriate for the occasion – thank you Mark.

We also had the opportunity to catch up over “coffee and cake” after the service and present Mark with his leaving gift. Folks had been contributing to a gift over the previous couple of weeks and thanks to your generosity we collected over £2,000! This allowed us to give two gifts – a short luxury break for Mark and Audrey (when they can find the time), as well as money to purchase a desk for the study in the new manse.

Glasgow Cathedral

By the time the Parishioner is available for distribution, Mark's

Service of Induction to the Cathedral will have taken place. This was on Thursday 4th April and as two buses were arranged for us, I know St Mary's was well represented on the evening! We convey our very best wishes to Mark and all of the family as they move into this exciting new chapter.

Church Officer

17th March was also Margaret's last Sunday as our Church Officer, after 20 years of dedicated service! I can report that Margaret is coping admirably with the change, although I suspect that the majority of any free time this has generated will quickly be taken up with "Gran" duties!!

I am delighted that Paul Malcolm has been appointed to the role of Church Officer. Paul has started already, with his duties initially limited to Sunday mornings, but he will step up to the full duties when he retires from his current job next month. I wish Paul well in both his retirement and his new responsibilities at St Mary's.

Session Meetings

We had two Session Meetings in March, due to the increased activity as we prepared for Mark's departure. We have managed to progress a lot of business during the month, and recognising the increased workload that we will experience, a number of appointments have been put in place.

Charles Hay has been appointed to the role of Associate Session Clerk and as part of that role, Charles will have particular responsibility for our Stewardship Programme.

Melissa McKenzie has also agreed to take on the role of Minute Clerk – principal duties will revolve around the administration of Session Meeting agendas and minutes.

Continued overleaf

Finally, John Pears is taking on the duties of “Facilities Coordinator”. The precise remit of the role has still to be developed with John, but it will include responsibility for the use of our premises, implementing the hall lets process and maximising the benefit we receive from this valuable resource.

I am very grateful to Charles, Melissa and John for accepting these responsibilities. Equally, I appreciate all of the support that is being offered at this very busy time. Thank you.

Two further significant appointments for us –

Firstly, Ian Taylor will be our Interim Moderator during our vacancy. Ian is Minister at Springfield Cambridge Parish Church in Bishopbriggs (One of Mark’s new neighbours!). We will have the opportunity to meet Ian on the 28th April, when he will lead us in Worship. Taking on the role of Interim Moderator is a significant commitment on Ian’s part. As a Kirk Session, we are grateful to Ian and we look forward to working with him.

Secondly, we have also been speaking to Morris Dutch, with a view to appointing him as our Locum Minister. Many folks will remember Morris, as he was our Locum Minister before Mark joined us in 2001. The paperwork has not been finalised yet, but it is hoped that Morris will be with us from the beginning of May.

Moving Forward

I appreciate that my report is a lot longer than usual – this reflects the amount of activity that is going on at the moment. These are all things that are moving us forward and it feels like a very positive place to be, as we look to our future at St Mary’s.

Kind Regards

Gordon Morrison, Session Clerk

Nursery News

I am delighted to let you know that we received our sixth Green Flag award this week! This is a tremendous achievement for our nursery. The feedback we received was very encouraging saying that our application was wonderful and that supporting information was excellent. Indeed, Eco Schools Scotland have asked if they can use some of our supporting material on their social media! Congratulations to everyone in the nursery and thanks to members of the congregation who help us with our eco work.

We took part in Waste Week during March when we highlighted the importance of reducing waste to save our environment. A Plastic Waste Audit was undertaken by our children and their families. We were also learning about Spring and the changes this season brings to our environment. We spent time in the garden planting bulbs and will be watching them grow over the coming weeks.

A group of children attended a trip to the Glasgow Resource Centre for a Fairy Tales and Dragons during the last week of term.

Oor Wullie's BIG Bucket Trail is a nationwide public art trail, where over 200 life-sized Oor Wullie Sculptures will take to the streets of Glasgow, Edinburgh, Aberdeen, Dundee and Inverness to raise awareness and funds for children's hospitals across Scotland. As well as the large sculptures which are on the trail, there are a number of mini sculptures. One of our children has been selected by Glasgow Children's Hospital Charity to receive one of the mini sculptures. The nursery children have to decorate the sculpture and then it will be displayed on the trail. Look out for our mini sculpture over the summer months (perhaps share a selfie with us??!!) Christian Aid News

The Kirkintilloch and Lenzie Christian Aid group once again thank St Mary's for the use of the Church Halls for their annual fair on 02 March. This year the sum raised was just over £1800.00 and sincere thanks to everyone who donated paper items and cash donations totalling £205. The annual service will take place in Hillhead Parish Church on Sunday 28 April at 7.00pm. Everyone is welcome to attend. Christian Aid Week this year is from 12 – 18 May. Anyone willing to assist with the house-to-house collection, please contact Paul Malcolm on 578 1520. One evening is all that is required. The annual Soup Lunch will be after the service on Sunday 19 May. Please come along and help the poorest people on earth and make a donation on the day.

Hall Lighting

On several occasions I have visited the halls and found various lights left on from previous evenings activities. May I remind the leaders of organisations that it is their responsibility to ensure all lights are switched off before leaving. Apart from unnecessary use of power it could be a potential fire risk.

Palm Sunday: Jesus at the gates of Jerusalem

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday, when the Church remembers how Jesus arrived at the gates of Jerusalem just a few days before the Passover was due to be held. He was the Messiah come to his own people in their capital city, and yet he came in humility, riding on a young donkey, not in triumph, riding on a war-horse.

As Jesus entered the city, the crowds gave him a rapturous welcome, throwing palm fronds into his path. They knew his reputation as a healer and welcomed him. But sadly the welcome was short-lived and shallow, for Jerusalem would soon reject her Messiah, and put him to death. On this day churches worldwide will distribute little crosses made from palm fronds in memory of Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem.

GOOD FRIDAY: the day the Son of God died for you

Good Friday is the day on which Jesus died on the cross. He was crucified at 9am in the morning, and died six hours later, at 3pm. It is the most solemn day in the Christian year and is widely marked by the removal of all decorations from churches.

In Lutheran churches, the day was marked by the reading of the passion narrative in a gospel, a practice which lies behind the 'passions' composed by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685 – 1750). Both the St Matthew Passion and the St John Passion have their origins in this observance of Good Friday. The custom of observing a period of three hours' devotion from 12 midday to 3 pm on Good Friday goes back to the 18th century. The 'Three Hours of the Cross' often take the form of an extended meditation on the 'Seven Last Words from the Cross', with periods of silence, prayer, or hymn-singing.

Gracious, loving Father,

Thank you for the wonderful reality of Jesus' resurrection on that first Easter Day.

Thank you that, because Jesus is alive, life has meaning and purpose.

When we don't understand why some things happen, when life is difficult, when we are struggling through pain and loss, help us to know your risen presence and love in our lives.

Help us to choose to trust you.

Help us always to be thankful for your amazing Easter gift of life and hope.

In Jesus name,

Amen.

The Rectory . . .

My dear Nephew Darren

My generous offer to take last week's marriage service for you in your church, so that you could attend your weekend plumbing course, proved most unwise. You may now be qualified to unblock church hall kitchen sinks, but I will not be taking another marriage ceremony for you again, no matter how much you have set your heart on that electrician's course next year, so that you can re-wire the vestry.

At first, I was delighted when the bride's mother called, inviting me to the reception. I assumed that somewhere called Charnley Hall would be a most fitting location, full of oak floors and waiters bearing sherry to guests. I did not realise until too late that it is only the rather dubious pub next door to your church.

At least I had been placed with the happy couple and both sets of parents. Then it slowly dawned on me: I was there to stop the bride's mother from attacking her newly-acquired son-in-law. My presence may have kept an uneasy peace at our table, but it had no such effect on some of the others.

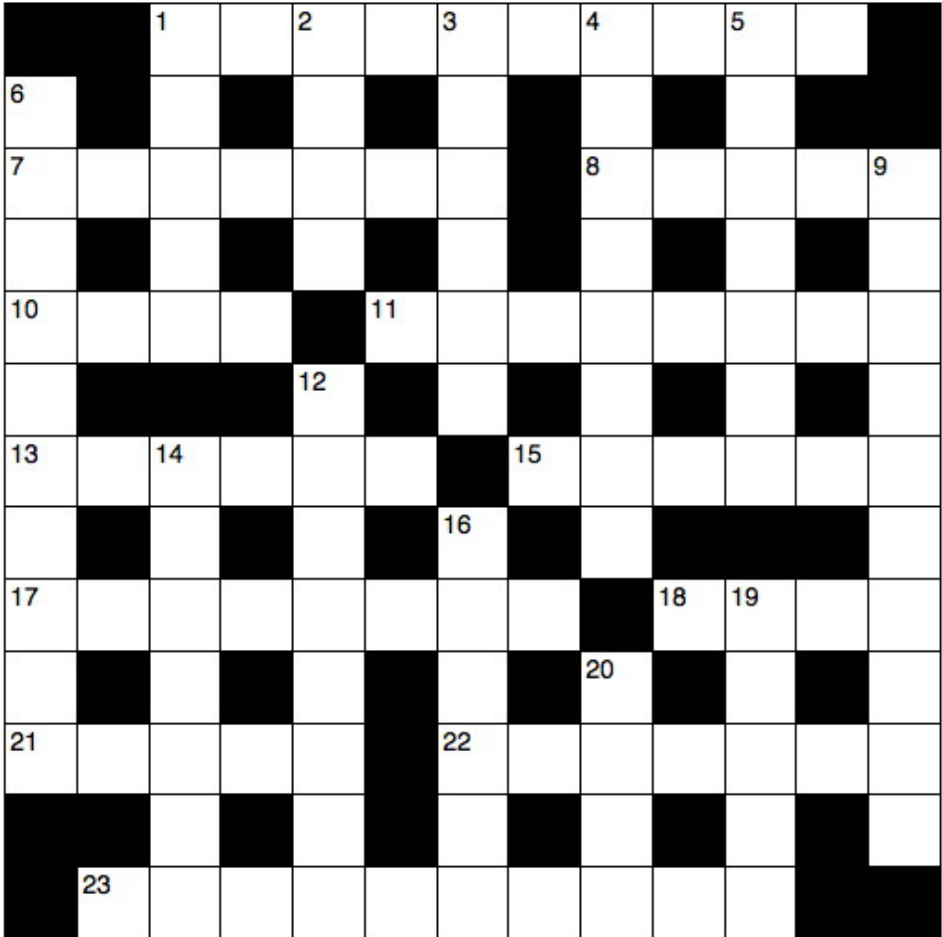

Well before the speeches, bride's and groom's supporters were exchanging snide remarks and bitter looks. Then all hell broke loose: a bridesmaid slapped an usher and burst into tears.

That was the starting signal for the liveliest wedding reception I have ever attended: chairs were knocked about, plates broken, wedding cake thrown, flowers snapped in two, and memorable insults exchanged. Of course, I could cope with all that, but then someone snatched the bottle of champagne that had been placed in front of me. They were going to waste it by breaking it on someone's head. I knew then that things had gone far enough.

It took but an instant for me to leap to my feet, lean over the table, and try and grab my bottle back. Unfortunately, that was when the police arrived. Were our churchwarden, Lord Jelleby to have been on the bench that day, matters could have been settled quite amicably. It was not to be: you may enthusiastically pass the peace in your church; I am now bound over to keep it.

Your loving uncle, Eustace
