Pastoral Letter

Dear Friends,

My father was one of a family of ten. We were always aware that each of his siblings was known for a particular character trait. My uncle Eddie was the socialiser, my aunt Hannah was the quiet one. My uncle Willy was the 'Nostalgic' one. Whenever Willy would enter the room the family would chorus at him, 'Nostalgia is not what is once was.' Music, perfume, photographs would take my uncle Willy on a journey down 'memory lane'. He would often be tearful towards the end of the night. There would be one beer too many and too many recollections of yester-year for him. Not only would it affect his mood it could easily affect the mood of the whole evening and everyone present.

Memory can have a detrimental effect on our present life. I have been reading a book by Stephen Grosz. It is entitled 'The Examined Life'. He is a psychoanalyst. In the book he comments on folks who have had a difficult experience and how attempting to remember can cause the mind to do

'All alone in the moonlight, I can dream of the old days, life was beautiful then...'

summersaults in an attempt to forget.

In Andrew Lloyd Webbers song Memory from his musical Cats, the lyrics focus on memory. The sentiment is not unlike my nostalgic uncle. 'All alone in the moonlight, I can dream of the old days, life was beautiful then...'

At this time in my life when I am likely to have less time ahead than I do have behind me, I am trying to value my memories. Like most folks, I have photographs, cards, letters, videos and objects that remind me of significant elements of my past.

As we rummage through the contents of the Manse, in preparation for our move to another Manse, I have come across things that instantly take me on a journey through time.

Going forward my memories will give me strength. I only need to take a look round the congregation at St Mary's and I remember the support, love and care you have shown me and my family over the past 18 years. I only need to take a walk through the cemetery, look through my notes and I remember good folks, no longer with us, who have shaped me as a person. When I walk or drive through Kirkintilloch each street has a memory, each corner has a recollection that enriches my life. There may always be things we want to forget and it may be painful to remember harder times.

As I cherish my memories of my Ministry at St Mary's it will strengthen my character and restore my soul.

The Bible instructs us to remember God's faithfulness. It is only with that intentional attempt to remember we can move confidently forward. God was faithful in the past and will be faithful in the future. Even when it is emotional, difficult, painful and hard, God is with us.

I thank you for allowing me to be your Minister. For the welcome and support you gave to me and my family. I have always taken pride in being the Minister of St Mary's Parish Church and I thank God for those who have served alongside me. The congregation have encouraged me and expressed gratitude for what I have done. I am grateful for the affirmation I have found in my work among you.

We will only be moving to Bishopbriggs. I will still bump into you in Tesco or on Cowgate.

May God richly bless this congregation and parish as you move into the next stage of your life. May the memories of all we have done together shape our future in a positive way.

God Bless

Moh.

Grannie

After church, the mother asked her young son if he had enjoyed Sunday School. "Oh yes," he replied. "My new teacher is pretty cool – she is Jesus' grand-mother." Startled, his mother asked what made him think that. "Obvious, she never stops talking about Jesus," he replied

World Water Day is 22nd March

Clean water is one thing we take completely for granted. After all, when did you last turn on the tap and expect filthy water to come out? But sadly, bad water is still a daily reality for billions of people. The United Nations wants to help them by ensuring that everyone can access clean water by 2030. It is part of the so-called '2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development', and an enormous challenge. Meanwhile, this year each one of us can do at least something to help on 22nd March. A donation to Water Aid will help provide safe water to marginalised communities worldwide. Simply go to: www.wateraid.org/uk

The following are extracts from letters from charities which we donated to at Christmas:

MND

Very many thanks to the Kirk Session and congregation for your kind donation of £981.10. Because of your generosity MND Scotland is able to provide more vital support than ever before. The number of free complimentary sessions has doubled. We can now provide more financial support through our grants to deal with the costs of MND. Last year alone our Welfare and Benefits team helped secure over £1.3 million in essential support for people affected by MND. You are also helping to fund research to fight back MND like never before.

Christine Arnott, MND Scotland

Glasgow Children's Hospital Charity

Please accept our sincere and heartfelt thanks on behalf of our young patients for the generous gift of £681.10 from the congregation.

Your generosity will help us to fund enhanced medical equipment, pioneering research innovative play programmes and family support services at Scotland's largest Children's Hospital.

'The complete revamp of the theatre and anaesthetic rooms are quite spectacular and the children have a distraction, particularly in the cardiac theatre where the patient is anaesthetised. The decoration of the room ensures that the operating table is not the first thing they see and concentrate on. It has made a huge difference to the paediatric environment and is enjoyed by many'.

Kirstin Sinclair, Chief Operating Officer

Young Church meets every Sunday in the halls during the service – ages 0–16. Visiting children are very welcome to join them.

Dates for your diary . . .

Friday Fellowship

meets every second Friday and the last two dates for this session are:

Mar 08 KMVC – Sally McLellan : All our Yesterdays
22 Beetle Drive & Quiz

The meeting on 08 March may well be of interest to those (ladies and gentlemen) who have followed the choir down through the years and you will all be made very welcome.

Listeners Circle

The next meeting will be on Friday 15 March. The choice of music this month is that of John McGuigan. Everyone is welcome at 2.00pm in the Session House.

Kirkintilloch Male Voice Choir 98th Annual Concert will be held in St Mary's Church on Saturday 30 March, 2019 at 7.30pm. Tickets priced £8 available from any choir member, Business Manager on 0141 775 2437, e-mail tickets kmvc@hotmail.co.uk Tickets can also be purchased from Flowers by Linsey Catherine Street, Kirkintilloch.

Potato Lunch

will take place in the Hall after the service on Sunday 31 March. Tickets £1 to reserve your place are now on sale in the Hall vestibule on Sunday mornings, with a donation on the day.

Fashion Show

A Fashion Show is taking place in the Hall on Friday 26th April. Tickets costing £5 include light refreshments and go on sale on Sunday 7th April.

Adam and Eve

At Sunday School the children were learning how God created everything, including human beings. Little Josh was especially intent when the teacher told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs. Later in the week his mother noticed him lying down and looking scared. "Josh, what is the matter?" Josh whispered "I have pain in my side. I think I'm going to have a wife."

Session Report

Sharing the Good News! Well over 100 people have taken the opportunity to attend one of our Session House Meetings during the month of February. The meetings have been very well received, not only allowing us to share some key messages, but also generating some good conversations with folks. If you have managed to come along to one of the meetings, I thank you. Your participation in this process is very much appreciated.

We are planning one further Session House Meeting in the near future, so if you were not able to come along last month, just let me know (or add your name to the list at the front door) and I will try to make suitable arrangements.

Our next steps are to start and put things in place that will let us move forward with the key actions and activities that we have identified. This work is already underway and I will be able to provide more of a progress report after the Kirk Session meetings in March.

On a different topic, as Mark's move to Glasgow Cathedral approaches, our thoughts naturally turn to Mark's last service with us at St Mary's, as well as his service of induction at the Cathedral. At the time of writing this, dates are still tentative, but it looks as though that final service with us could be on 17th March. It is anticipated that, on that day, we would be able to catch up with Mark over a tea or coffee across in the halls after the service. This will be an opportunity to express our gratitude to Mark and to convey our best wishes to all of the Johnstone family as they prepare for their move.

The same day will also be Margaret's last service as Church Officer. All change!!

We are actively recruiting for Margaret's successor and would hope to be in a position to fill the role in the near future.

Kind Regards
Gordon Morrison, Session Clerk

Nursery News

We have been working hard towards gaining our 6th ECO Schools Flag and over the coming months require some help. Some activities you could be involved in can be found at; www.terracycle.co.uk/en-GB/ where you will see what items you can now recycle, including old toothbrushes.

We will be promoting WASTE WEEK throughout the month of March.

We have been looking at the birds that live in and around our environment as part of the Big Garden Bird Watch. Some of the children made bird feeders.

We had two outings this month when children visited our Forest Kindergarten and others went to the Gallery of Modern Art.

Chinese New Year was celebrated with Chinese themed activities and even a Chinese Dance with our Nursery Dragon!

As part of our Fairtrade Fortnight activities we hosted a Fair Games event for nurseries throughout East Dunbartonshire. Children had the chance to participate in various sports activities using Fairtrade balls.

Visitors are welcome

St Mary's is a sit anywhere Church and visitors are always welcome. If you feel there should be more to life than retail therapy and Friday night clubbing, try coming along to the 11 o'clock service on Sunday morning. You may hear something to change how you value your life and your relationships with those around you. You don't have to join up to join in.

The Church office is located on the right as you enter the Church Halls. The secretary, Mrs Margaretann Dougall, is available in the office Monday to Friday 8.30 a.m. – 12.30 a.m. and may be the first point of contact for general enquiries. Margaretann will be able to refer you to the person best suited to respond. Church office telephone 0141 775 1166 or e-mail: office.stmarys@btconnect.com

The Parishioner Online

Missed or lost your copy of the Parishioner ... why not go to www.stmaryskirkintilloch.org.uk and see this month's copy. Stephen McKean, Webmaster, has built up previous issues online so you can look back on past copies. Also if you wish any news or information to be put on the website over the summer months please e-mail webmaster@stmaryskirkintilloch.org.uk and we will put these on the News page of the website.

The Rectory . . .

My dear Nephew Darren

So, your vicar has appointed you to be the magazine editor; I wonder what you have done to offend him. I appointed our magazine editor 20 years ago, after her dog dug up my rose bed. Sadly, she seems unaware that I gave it to her as a penance and has been happily carrying on ever since. She has even developed a nasty persistence when it comes to chasing me for a vicar's letter every month. Becoming editor has brought out the tyrant in her.

I applaud your hope that your magazine will be a great force for good in the community, but I fear you may be disappointed. You will hardly believe this, but many readers of our magazine seem to ignore my pastoral letter altogether, and instead scan the adverts for plumbers and undertakers – and even for both – if there has been a major burst in their pipes.

In any case, here are some editorial tips to bear in mind: if you want to keep any piece of church information confidential, then publish it in your magazine. On the other hand, if you accidentally transpose the names of the ladies responsible for the altar pedestal and lectern on the flower rota, it will be spotted within seconds of publication. And you will not be easily forgiven.

Staffing rotas can be helpful, so that people know who to blame when anything goes wrong. Reports of meetings of monthly groups are also welcome, because not everyone who goes to these meetings can stay awake the whole time, and thus a report informs them about the bits they slept through.

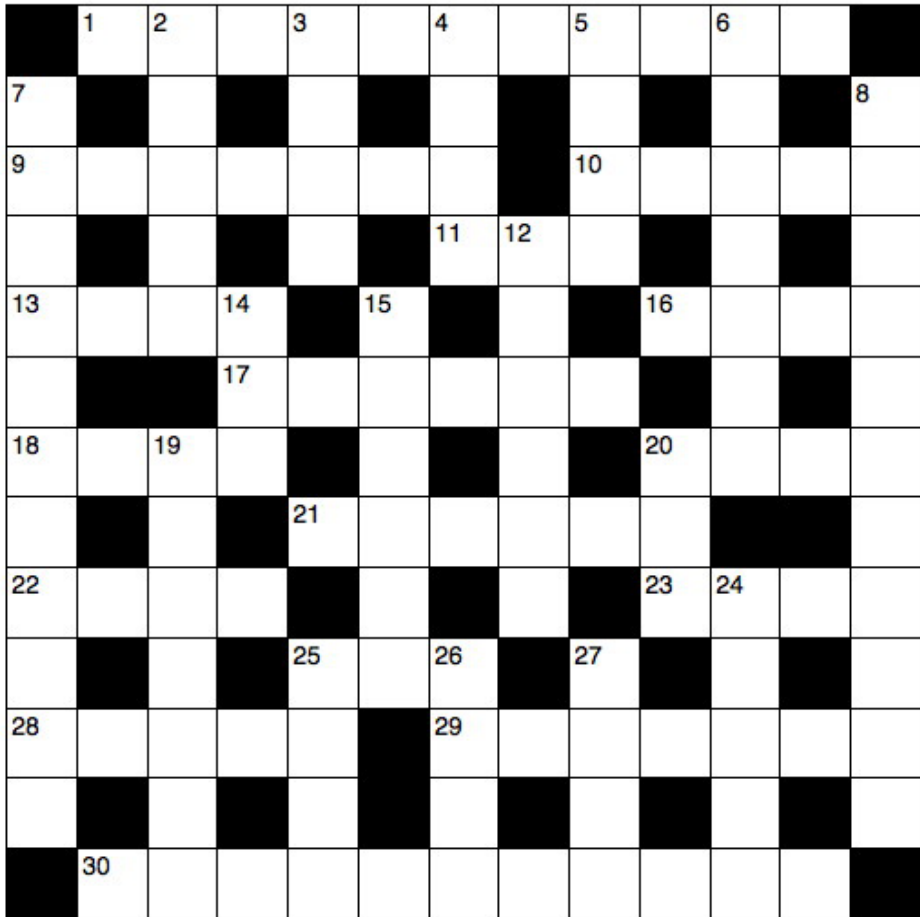

Always include a list of contact details for all the church officers, but don't worry if you mix up their various phone numbers. In fact, it can help get people talking to each other, because in order to reach the PCC Secretary, they will have had to phone most of the other PCC members first.

My final piece of advice is to omit any deadline for submission for the following month. A deadline is like a red rag to a bull, and simply incites people to break it. Whereas if you have them a bit worried that they may be left out, they will get you the copy in good time.

I wish you many happy hours reading badly written copy, fending off fearful poems, and stalking your own vicar, in vain hopes of getting his clergy letter.

Your loving uncle, Eustace
