Pastoral Letter

Dear Friends,

The summer months may seem so far away. The summer sun was glowing, and people moaned about the heat rather than the cold or the rain. Are we ever happy? I did find it a bit too hot sometimes.

I love when folks come home from vacation and start to tell the stories of their trip.

This year a few folks seem to have enjoyed going to various places on or in the Mediterranean. Highlights ranged from Majorca, Barcelona, Zakynthos, Dubrovnik, Malta, Sardinia. Some folks were able to cruise the Mediterranean and enjoy waking up in a different city each day.

Having visited

... what do we cling to in times of trouble? For
Paul it is God –
what will it be
for us?

a couple of the major cruise destinations I am amazed at how these ships manage to stay afloat. Archimedes' principle does say something like '...a body immersed in water receives an up-thrust equal to that of the water displaced...' And so large ships float.

I love travelling by boat, a dingy, a ferry or even a cruise ship. Audrey can get sea sick.

On one trip to Amsterdam the rocking of the ferry was quite overwhelming. I enjoyed dinner, Audrey enjoyed a sleep.

On board a ferry or a cruise ship the fragile nature of the sailing experience is exposed. We are very much at the mercy of the sea. Some love the adventure, others are fearful.

In the New Testament the Apostle Paul is ship wrecked. We can read how the ship is 'run-a-ground' on rocks. The passengers on the ship cling to pieces of wood and debris from the ship as it is beaten by the waves against the rocks.

In this situation we hear how the Apostle Paul brings hope, vision and calm to the situation. Take time to read the account in Acts chapter 27.

If we allow this bible passage to speak to the storms and turmoil of life – what do we cling to in times of trouble? For Paul it is God – what will it be for us?

Do we have an anchor that is sure and steadfast, grounded in the rock which shall not move?

God can bring hope, vision and calm to the most trying of tempestuous seas.

Kindest regards

Mak.

British Summer Time ends on Sunday 28th October.

Please remember to put your clocks and watches BACK one hour before retiring on the Saturday evening or you will be too early for Church.

The summer may be over,
And Winter drawing near,
But now, it's time for meetings,
For friendship, warmth and cheer.
There's purple on the mountains,
And beauty all around
With here and there a summer rose
Still waiting to be found.

It's time for reminiscing,
Recalling summer days,
For sharing hope and happy thoughts
In many quiet ways.
A time of relaxation,
Of fellowship and joy,
Creating autumn memories,
That winter can't destroy.

New Ways of being Church

You are Invited . . .

Some Questions we may ask as we think about our faith and the life of the Church in Kirkintilloch.

What is our vision?    Where are we going?

How can we make a difference?

How can we touch the lives of people in the community?

How do we get folk over the threshold of the church?

How can we deepen our faith?

How can we get to know one another better ?

How or why do we pray?

How do we respond to the Big Issues in our lives and the life of the world?

Perhaps we could make a start by coming together as a group to explore and discuss some of these questions using the theme

New ways of being Church; Church with an Open Door, Open Heart and Open Mind.
Let us explore the issues together.

Nursery News

Our two new members of staff have settled well into nursery life and are developing their new ideas.

The children have been outdoors this month visiting our forest kindergarten and practising their pedal skills in the car park! They have also been learning all about the letter 'B'.

Can you help? We are always looking for volunteers to come with us to the forest kindergarten and spend the morning there with the staff and children. If you have some spare time and enjoy the outdoors please contact Margaretann at the church office. Our computer hard drive is on its last legs. If you have one at home which is redundant please consider donating it to the nursery. You can be sure it will be put to very good use!

Session Report

Our first meeting after the summer break took place on Wednesday 19th September, a week later than our normal schedule. Being the first meeting of the new session, there was plenty to discuss and it was good to catch up with things after the holiday period.

We arranged the visitations for all of our organisations – details are printed elsewhere in the magazine.

We also made arrangements for our Harvest Festival, which took place on Sunday 30th September. Thank you for all of your kind donations. Produce is distributed to Lodging House Mission, St Rollox and East Dunbartonshire Food Bank. Monetary donations are also sent to Lodging House Mission and St Rollox. My thanks to everyone involved in preparing the Church for our service, as well as the Harvest Committee for organising the distribution of your donations.

We also spent a period of time discussing the latest developments in regard to our ongoing conversations with Presbytery's Stewardship & Finance Committee and our Plan for addressing our current financial shortfall. Our Plan was submitted to the Stewardship & Finance Committee at the end of August, for their consideration. We had expected the committee to submit a report to the September meeting of Presbytery, but they have instead taken additional time to review our Plan, before submitting their report to the October Presbytery Meeting.

To this end, we have received a formal citation notice, advising that the report from Stewardship & Finance Committee will be received at the Ordinary Meeting of Presbytery on the 9th October. The citation was intimated to the congregation on Sunday 30th September and Sunday 7th October.

The citation is a conventional process used to ensure a congregation's interests are represented when an item of business affects them. In this regard, we will be invited to speak at the meeting, responding to the committee's report and proposals.

If you would like any additional information regarding our Stewardship & Finance Plan, or any other matters related to the Kirk Session, please take the opportunity to ask me.

With thanks and kind regards,

Gordon Morrison, Session Clerk

An Analysis of our Offerings

Once again we have carried out a review of the freewill offerings made by the congregation in the year to 31 March 2018. As can be seen from the table below, over fifty per cent of our members appear to be giving nothing or less than 50p per week as in the previous year. The total giving has remained virtually static. The figures do not take into account the Gift Aid Recovery on a substantial number of the offerings.

Weekly Amount	Number	Numerical Percentage	Total Amount	Monetary Percentage
No envelopes	264	44.82	0	0
Nil	19	3.22	0	0
Nil-50p	27	4.58	316.00	0.34
50p-£1	9	1.53	372.76	0.40
£1-£1.50	10	1.70	610.60	0.66
£1.50-£2	8	1.36	769.10	0.83
£2-£3	34	5.77	4543.09	4.92
£3-£4	34	5.77	6278.95	6.80
£4-£5	53	9.00	12439.10	13.47
£5-£7.50	60	10.18	19501.53	21.12
£7.50-£10	26	4.41	12045.00	13.04
£10-£15	26	4.41	15963.50	17.28
£15-£20	14	2.38	12442.00	13.47
£20-£30	4	.68	5463.43	5.92
>£30	1	.17	1620.00	1.75
Total	589	100.00	92365.06	100.00

The figures are slightly distorted as some members no longer take envelopes and simply put cash in the plate, which is beneficial to us now as we can claim Gift Aid on it under the Small Gifts Scheme. This does not account for the vast majority however. The numbers above are also affected by joint giving as only one member is recorded in these cases. In 2017 our running costs amounted to just over £153,000 (excluding the Special Project) and Gift Aid received on our freewill offerings amounted to £18,240. Taking these figures into account, our deficit could reach in excess of £42,000 which is clearly unsustainable and must be addressed sooner rather than later.

We are conscious that many of you have contributed handsomely to our Roof Fund, but we do however need to generate sufficient income to pay our bills and to meet our obligations to the Church of Scotland in full together with the arrears we have built up. We would respectfully request all members review their level of giving and if possible increase it. Every little counts and we would also commend to those members who have not yet joined the Standing Order Scheme to do so as this does help our cash-flow during the year. We also would ask any taxpayers who have not joined the Gift Aid Scheme to obtain a Declaration form, from either of the contributors, in order that we can reclaim tax equivalent to 25% of your offering.

We have now completed the first phase of our project to get the Church wind and water tight, but now need to plan for the next stage of internal works for which grants will be less forthcoming, and at the same time we must try to meet all of our commitments to Church of Scotland and pay our bills as they fall due.

Hugh Biggans, Finance Convener
John Thomson, Treasurer

All free!

The nursery teacher decided to tell her class about democracy. 'We live in a great country' she began. 'One of the things we should be happy about, is that in this country we are all free.' One little boy stood up and looked indignant. 'I'm not free,' he protested. 'I'm four.'

When analysing the above expenditure you may notice that there are a couple of extraordinary items of expenditure, such as the replacement of The Manse boiler and replacement of broken windows, of which, the latter is subject to an insurance claim; these amounts totalling approximately £6200 which would not be regular monthly expenditure. Foregoing this, it is obvious to see that our income does not meet our expenditure.

Why Christians are like pumpkins

A woman had recently become a Christian and been baptised. Curious, one of her colleagues at work asked her what it was like to be a Christian.

The woman was caught off guard and didn't know how to answer. Then she saw the office 'jack-o'-lantern' on a nearby desk and blurted: 'Well, it's like being a pumpkin.'

Her colleague asked her to explain that one. And so she said: "Well, God finds you and picks you up from the patch and brings you in and washes off all the dirt on the outside that you got from being around all the other pumpkins.

"Then He carefully cuts off the top and takes all the yucky stuff out from inside you. He removes all those seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc. Then He gives you a new smiling face and puts His light inside of you, to shine for all to see.

'It is our choice to either stay outside and rot on the vine, or come inside and be something new and bright. We can each of us smile today, and shine with His light!'

Prayer

In the changing seasons,
in the terrifying, changing world
where landscapes are no longer recognisable,
where things spin so quickly out of control,
You are the one still point.
You are unchanging,
always faithful,
always present.

In a world of shifting sands
You are the rock on which I stand,
I am secure in You alone.
You are the rock on which I stand,
Jesus,
My Saviour.

Plans for our Harvest Supper always start several months in advance, with the annual argument about whether we dare increase the price of tickets by 20p to £1.50. After endless wrangling we compromise on 15p, with several warning that this will sound the death knell of Harvest. That every member of the committee cheerfully pays £50 a head to dine out elsewhere seems irrelevant.

Hotpots are provided by the ladies of the parish. It is always interesting to speculate on who has made which: some are robust and meaty, while others are wan and watery. Having sampled these dishes for the past 30 years, I can match each offering with the personalities of their creators. It is also amusing to watch how the cooks manoeuvre to make sure the correct people receive their own dishes. Mrs French positively chases Lady Masterson with her hotpot.

After the meal, we proceed to what parishioners optimistically call the entertainment. I settle myself on the back row, smile, applaud - and think of the large gin awaiting me back at the Rectory.

Colonel Hetherington imagines

that the consumption of a bottle of claret over the meal improves his intonation as he gives his annual rendition of "The Lost Chord". I can only assume the lost chords he refers to are the vocal ones he once possessed. Miss Simpson's jokes have been repeated so often that the audience enthusiastically joins in with every punch line. Miss Sprocker makes her annual (failed) attempt to hand around paper and pencils and hold 'a nice little quiz' – she was a primary teacher.

Meanwhile the ladies in the kitchen provide a musical accompaniment of crashing crockery and cutlery, which sadly drowns out all but the most tantalising snippets of their gossip about the rest of us.

The evening always ends with the Major's recitation of "The boy stood on the burning deck". Before he can commence an un-requested encore, I surge up to the stage, thank all the performers, and wish everyone a safe journey home. The Major is left looking like a boy who had just had his lollipop stolen by the school bully. On reflection, that is quite an accurate analogy.

Your loving uncle, Eustace
