Interim Moderator

Dear friends,

In my first parish when my predecessor moved out of the Manse he left some things behind. Among them was a door mat at the front door. On the mat was the caption, "Oh no! not you again" which always amused me.

My wife was not so enthralled by it, and in time it was replaced by a plain one.

So once again, 'it is me again,' penning a few lines for this edition of the Parishioner.

Our Locum will be enjoying a well deserved holiday as you read this and again I am grateful for the support Rev. Adam Dillon continues to provide us with, as well as Dr. Blakesley, who stepped into the breach recently when Morris was 'hors de combat' and is covering during Morris' holiday. Sadly, Dr. Blakesley's time is drawing to a close at Springfield Cambridge, as she completes her Probationary Period with me in Bishopbriggs at the end of November. However, depending on a call to her first parish, we may try and use her as and when we can! With regard to our own current Vacancy, discussions were held in October between me and representatives of the congregation and officials from the Presbytery of Glasgow and the central church offices in Edinburgh. The focus of those has been around how we could secure a future 'right to call a Minister' given our current financial challenges. I am quietly hopeful that we may have some positive news to share with you before the year is out, but at this stage because of sensitivities around these matters, I am not able to say more. After the November meeting of the Kirk Session I would hope we would be able to communicate more fully our proposals with you.

At a recent meeting of the Guild at Springfield Cambridge we celebrated our 90th Anniversary as a branch. I was asked to lead the opening devotions, and we opened with the hymn, 'Now thank we all our God', and concluded with the hymn, 'Look forward in faith'. Notes of thankfulness for our past were expressed, and notes of hope and optimism were struck for our future with God.

I realise that in a Vacancy, things can appear to move very slowly and we are uncertain of what the future will hold, but I encourage you to look forward in faith, or as the first verse of the hymn puts it:

*Look forward in faith,
All time is in God's hand.
Walk humbly with him
and trust his future plan.
God has wisely led
his people by his power.
Look forward in hope,
he gives us each new hour.*

So until I see you again in person, or you read me in print, I pray that you may continue to love and serve the Lord at St. Mary's.

Nursery News

The nursery children continue to be active within and out with the nursery. Some of them visited the forest kindergarten last month and had lots of fun!

We have recently started working towards our 7th Eco Flag. Please help us by recycling bottle lids, glasses, batteries, ink cartridges and mascara wands (apparently these are used to clean polluted animals). The children are also supporting the church by collecting items for the Foodbank.

Rev Morris Dutch will visit the nursery each week this month to tell stories and teach the children new songs as he plays along on his guitar. We thank Morris for his enthusiasm and commitment.

We will welcome back Mrs Joanne MacDonald later this month as she returns from maternity leave. We look forward to having her back. Mrs Connor will remain with us as Transition Manager as we move towards providing 1140 hours.

Kirkintilloch Male Voice Choir Charity Concert

Incorporating the 8th Primary Schools Choral Festival

Thursday 21st November 2019 at 7.00pm in St Mary's.

Kirkintilloch Male Voice Choir have, for a number of years, held a Primary School Choral Festival in the Church. St Mary's, over the last 7 Festivals, have been a proud partner in the project by providing young people with the opportunity to sing in a choir competition locally in the largest venue in our town with the lovely acoustics that is our sanctuary. The Male Voice Choir will also perform a number of musical pieces throughout the evening. The highlight, however, is when around 150 choristers aged from 9 to 90 join together to sing the finale. This year the money raised at the Festival will be going to Glasgow Children's Hospital Charity.

Tickets are priced £4 for adults and £2 for primary school aged children. Also, if anyone would like to assist with stewarding on the night please speak to Sally or Gordon McLellan, phone 0141 775 2437 or e-mail tickets\_kmvc@hotmail.co.uk

The Young Church Craft Fair

The Young Church Craft Fair is on Saturday 16th November from 10am-4pm. This will include a tearoom with a soup lunch. There are already around 20 craft stalls. Tombola prizes, items for a bottle stall and home baking for the tearoom will be gratefully received. Please hand these into the young church team anytime up until the start of the fair. If anyone can help on the day - even for a short time - it would be greatly appreciated.

The Flower Circle

The Flower Circle Coffee Morning is on Saturday 07 December from 10.00 – 12 noon. Home baking, tombola and there will be flowers for sale. Tickets can be had from any member of the Flower Circle.

Christmas Cards

The Church will once again be collecting Christmas cards for delivery in Lenzie, Kirkintilloch, Auchinloch and Waterside. Collecting date is Sunday 01 December. This year there is a slight increase to 25p per card, with all money being donated to the Church. Please remember to include a house number when addressing the envelopes, thus making it less difficult for those delivering and to avoid cards having to be posted.

Christmas Open Doors

Our usual 'Open Doors' will take place on Wednesday 4th December. Again, for this very special Church opening, soup and sandwiches will be served from 12:10pm. There will also be some Christmas music over lunch time. The church will have been decorated ready for Christmas and so our lovely building will look even more welcoming and beautiful. Come and join us on this day when we will be open from 10am until 2pm. Please note this will be the last open doors until March 2020.

Christmas Is Coming

The annual Advent Lunch will take place after the service on Sunday 8th December.

This will take the form of a meal provided by outside caterers. The menu will be available on Sunday 10th November when the tickets go on sale at a cost of £1 (plus a donation on the day).

Also, from 8th December, several church souvenirs and craft Christmas items will be on sale. All of which will make very good stocking fillers. All profits made will go towards further church renovations.

Gift Service

This year our Gift Service will take place on Sunday 08 December. You will be offered the choice of donating your gift to various organisations:

Labels and envelopes (money tree) will be available to pick up on Sunday 24 November. Should you choose to make a monetary donation. These will be for the nominated charities for 2019/20.

Gifts should be returned UNWRAPPED in a recyclable bag with the label clearly visible to aid with the sorting and distribution of your gift.

Your generosity is very much appreciated by all the organisations - especially at this time of year and in these difficult economic times - as they work to ensure your gift makes a difference to someone over the Festive period and beyond. Thank you for your support.

Special Services over the Festive Period are as follows:

First Sunday in Advent - Sunday 01 December

Pot Plants - Sunday 15 December

Festive Event - Sunday 15 December at 7:00pm

Blue Christmas Service - Wednesday 18 December at 7:00pm

Nativity - Sunday 22 December

Watchnight Service - Tuesday 24 December at 11:00pm

The Parishioner

Copy for the December/January Parishioner should be handed to Sandra Burns, left in the Publications pigeon hole in the Hall vestibule or sent by e-mail to sandraburns.me@gmail.com no later than Sunday 24 November.

If any of the organisations have significant dates coming up in early February please take the opportunity to include them in this edition.

Visitors are welcome

St Mary's is a sit anywhere Church and visitors are always welcome. If you feel there should be more to life than retail therapy and Friday night clubbing, try coming along to the 11 o'clock service on Sunday morning. You may hear something to change how you value your life and your relationships with those around you.

You don't have to join up to join in. The Church office is located on the right as you enter the Church Halls. The secretary, Mrs Denise Jaap, is available in the office Monday to Friday 8.15 a.m. – 12.15 p.m.

and may be the first point of contact for general enquiries. Denise will be able to refer you to the person best suited to respond. Church office telephone 0141 775 1166 or e-mail: office.stmarys@btconnect.com

Organisations Accounts/Auditors

Will treasurers of all organisations please ensure that a copy of their annual audited accounts is passed to the Treasurer or Finance Convenor no later than 29th February 2020. These accounts will be made up to their year-end falling into the year to 31 December 2019. The Nursery, Social Committee, Young Church and Friday Fellowship, whose accounts are included in the Church Accounts, should work to a deadline of 14th February 2020.

The members of the Finance Committee who have volunteered to act as auditors for the church organisations are John Pears, Gordon Sinclair, Lewis Wilson and Hugh Biggans.

The Church Accounts should be submitted to Presbytery and Church of Scotland by 31st March annually, therefore, it is very important that these deadlines are adhered to, especially in our current circumstances. We need to present the accounts to Session as early as possible to enable them to be inspected by our Independent Examiner prior to submission to the relevant bodies. Your assistance in this matter is very much appreciated by John Thomson and myself.

Hugh Biggans, Finance Convenor

November 30 – Andrew (d. c.60) Patron Saint of Scotland

The apostle Andrew is patron saint of Scotland. According to the gospel of Matthew, Andrew and his brother Simon Peter were the very first two disciples whom Jesus called. 'Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.' (Matt 4:18,19)

Without more ado, they obeyed. 'At once they left their nets and followed him.' The story is touching for the simple but total faith that they had in Jesus.

Whenever the gospels mention the disciples, Andrew's name is always in the first four. Rather than a boisterous leader of men (like Peter), he seems to have been an approachable person who wanted to help people.

It was Andrew who helped introduce a group of Greeks to Jesus (John 12:20-2) and Andrew who offered Jesus the five small barley loaves and two small fishes when Jesus challenged them to feed the five thousand. (John 6:8) His faith in Jesus over small things was richly rewarded, and this faithful, kindly Galilean fisherman turned disciple went on to become one of the 12 apostles of the Christian Church. Andrew never settled back in Capernaum by Galilee. Instead, his 'fishing for men' seems to have taken him far. One ancient tradition links him with Greece, where both Scythia and Epirus claimed him as their apostle. Another place in Greece, Patras in Achaia, claimed to be the place where Andrew was eventually martyred.

Like Jesus, he was crucified, but the story goes that during the two days it took him to die, he preached earnestly to the people about Jesus. Andrew was not afraid of death on a cross – he had seen it before, and knew one thing for certain: because of Jesus, there was nothing but eternal life ahead of him.

In the West, Andrew's feast-day was universal from the 6th century, and hundreds of churches were named after him in Italy, France and England. But how did he end up as patron saint of Scotland?

Well, according to one ancient legend, his relics were taken from Patras to Scotland in the 8th century, and ended up in Fife, where a church dedicated to him was built and became a Centre for evangelisation and later pilgrimage. As Andrew was the only apostle to make it as far as Scotland, he was chosen as Patron Saint.

But Andrew did not stay in Scotland. After the fall of Constantinople in 1204, it is said that the Crusaders took his relics to Amalfi. From there the despot Thomas Palaeologus sent his head to the pope in Rome in 1461 – where it became one of the most treasured possessions of St Peters – until it was sent to the church in Constantinople by Paul VI.

In art Andrew is depicted with a normal Latin cross in the most ancient examples. The saltire cross 'X', commonly called St Andrew's Cross, and which represents Scotland on the Union Jack, was associated with him from the 10th century.

How Armistice Day began, 100 years ago

It was 100 years ago, on 11th November 1919, that the first Armistice Day (now Remembrance Day) was marked in the UK. King George V had issued a proclamation calling for a two-minute silence at 11:00am to remember the members of the armed forces who lost their lives in the line of duty.

The two-minute silence was in fact adopted from a South African idea that had spread from Cape Town through the Commonwealth in 1919.

The first minute was dedicated to those who died in the war, and the second to those left behind – families affected by bereavement and other effects of the conflict.

The Cenotaph was erected temporarily in Whitehall for a peace parade for Armistice Day in 1920. After a tremendous nationwide response, it became a permanent structure, and in the following years war memorials were created in other British towns and cities.

In 1939, the two-minute silence of Armistice Day was moved to the nearest Sunday to 11th November, so that it would not conflict with wartime production. This tradition continued after World War II – Remembrance Sunday is still marked with a national service, and by special services in most churches throughout the country and beyond. Americans mark Veterans Day instead.

Peace

On the eleventh day of the eleventh month
The guns had ceased and peace had come,
Another war with so much loss
As brave men fought and victories won.

We honour those who gave their lives
And took up arms against the foe,
Not knowing if they would return
But faithful to the call to go.

Battles rage throughout the earth,
It seems that wars will never cease
Until the day that Christ returns
And only then will there be peace.

The Prince of Peace,
Emmanuel
Will come to end this world of strife
And as He brings His kingdom in
He'll usher in eternal life.

The Rectory . . .

St James the Least

The perils of eating with members of your church

My dear Nephew Darren

One of the rather dubious pleasures of being rector here is to dine twice a year with Lord and Lady Shuttlingsloe. I was summoned to go along yesterday evening.

As usual, I was greeted by the footman and led into the entrance hall, where only a few weeks ago we held the parish Harvest supper for 200 people. I relinquished my coat, took a deep breath, and set off to follow him down endless corridors to the drawing room. The house is rumoured to be haunted, but I suspect any sounds of footsteps come from guests of previous years, still wandering the corridors trying to find their way out.

There were the usual guests - most of whom were merely continuing conversations they had had the previous evening at another stately, decaying pile in the county. They were standing, because all the chairs were occupied by the Lord's dogs, and everyone agreed that the dogs looked far too comfortable to move. Since one aged golden retriever recognised me, having developed an over-familiarity with my own dog, he amicably let me squeeze beside him on a sofa - even if it left me for the rest of the evening looking as if I was wearing an Afghan coat.

When the meal was ready, the butler arrived with our overcoats, because the dining room is a cavernous chamber which is largely unheated as birds are nesting in the chimney. Lord Shuttlingsloe considers this perfectly acceptable, since his family have been eating in this way for the past 500 years, which is how long most of the present staff have worked there. Conversation at my end of the table was less than easy, since Lady S dozed throughout the meal and my companion on the other side seemed to hold me personally responsible for the Spanish Inquisition. Had I been, she would most definitely have been on my list for questioning.

As Rector, one has one's social responsibilities, but I confess, there were moments when I rather envied your own evening, with a meal on a tray in front of the television - in a warm house.

Your loving uncle,
Eustace

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Matthew 7:7-11, Luke 11:5-13

To teach about praying, and God's good gifts, Jesus told this story - 'If you have a visitor arrive in the middle of the night..'

Oh no! I have no bread to feed him! I am so ashamed! What can I do?... I know!

'You would go round to a friend's house.'

I really, really need some bread for a visitor.

I need that bread!

He's not going to go away, is he?

Jesus concluded...

So keep on asking and it will be given, seeking and you will find, knocking and it will be opened... And parents, if your hungry child asks for bread,

'...would you give them a stone?

'And if they asked for a fish...'

'...would you give them a snake?

'Or if they asked for an egg...'

'you'd give a scorpion?'

If you, who aren't perfect parents, give good gifts to your children, then don't you think that gifts from your perfect Father, God, will be even better?

The Doctor and the Sick

LEVI WANTED ALL HIS FRIENDS TO MEET JESUS TOO, SO HE CALLED A BIG PARTY FOR HIS TAX COLLECTOR FRIENDS

IN JESUS' DAY TAX COLLECTORS WERE VERY UNPOPULAR. THE PEOPLE THOUGHT JESUS WAS MIXING WITH A BAD BUNCH!
